WHAT IT REALLY IS.

The Most Dangerous of Modern Disorders Clearly Defined—Pneumonia and What Causes It.

There has been a great mistake as to what pneumonia really is. People, and even some physicians, have called it a dangerous disease. Pneumonia is always an after effect. If the system is run down, weakened, debilitated, if the life is at a low ebb, the lungs may fill up and the person die suddenly, and it is called pneumonia. No man or woman ever died of pneumonia when the body was strong, vigorous and healthy. It comes upon one when weakened by grip, by a severe cold or overwork and a generally weakened condition. Such being the case, how can this dreadful trouble known as pneumonia be prevented or warded off? Manifestly, by strengthening and fortifying the body by having the health and strength so secure that pneumonia will not attack, or if it should, can easily be warded off. This can be done by careful living, careful diet and a moderate use of a pure stimulant. To gently assist nature a stimulant is required, something that adds to the life and vigor. Nothing for this purpose can equal pure whiskey, and it should be borne in mind that the only pure and medicinal whiskey which has received the unqualified indorsement of physicians and scientists is Duffy's Pure Malt. It is no ordinary whiskey, but possesses properties known to no other article. It will effectually ward off pneumonia and has saved the lives of thousands of people. It should be remembered, however, that it is the only whiskey which can accomplish this, and any druggist or grocer who seeks to convince you to the contrary is deceiving. Insist upon having Duffy's Pure Malt.

IN THE BEE TO-DAY

Ohio and Indiana—Showers this afternoon and to-morrow; slightly warmer; southeasterly winds; cooler Saturday night.

Illinois—Severe local storms; cooler Saturday; southeasterly winds.

Michigan and Wisconsin—Rain with severe local storms; probably cooler Saturday afternoon; heavy southeasterly gales.

U. S. Department of Agriculture,
Weather Bureau.
Toledo, April 1, 1892.

Weather Conditions.

The storm center which was over southern Wyoming has moved eastward, and is central over Nebraska. It has developed considerable energy and is causing severe storms along its path. The barometer at North Platte stood at 29 inches—a remarkably low condition. High northwest winds, with much colder weather prevail in the rear of this storm center, and rain and snow are reported in Dakota and Montana. Cloudy and rainy weather prevails along the Mississippi valley and over the upper lake region. The country east of the Rocky Mountains is under the influence of this low barometer center, which will move eastward, bringing southerly and southeasterly winds and cloudy and rainy weather, with perhaps local thunder storms by Saturday afternoon. The high barometer area in the east is moving out into the Atlantic. Another has appeared in the nortwest and is following close on the storm center. The rains during the past 24 hours were rather light, the greatest amounts being about half an inch at Washington and Omaha.

The weather in this vicinity to-day will be clouding and threatening, with probably showers and thunder storm to-night.

For Saturday—Warm, partly cloudy, with showers, followed Sunday by clearing, colder weather.

THE CHURCH AND STATE

Startling Proposal by Rev. Charles Gore.

The Church of England Startled at a Suggestion from the Man Who Wrote Lux Mundi.

London, April 1.—Rev. Charles Gore, author of "Lux Mundi," lectured in the Chapter House of St. Paul's cathedral yesterday on social doctrine in the Sermon on the Mount. His propositions rather startled his hearers, who included Canon Scott-Holland, of St. Paul's; Right Rev. Dr Wilkinson, bishop assistant of London for northern and central Europe, and many other London and Oxford dignataries, Mr. Gore being a fellow of Trinity and principal of the Pusey library.

His chief and startling contention was that the church ought to be the home of the best moral conscience of the community, and he urged churchmen to band themselves together to frame rules for Christian conduct which shall give the church a clearly understood moral code, just as it now possesses a clearly understood creed. All attempts to merge the moral sense of the nation in the state, he said, not only have failed, but have done incalculable harm.

He also pleaded for the re-establishment of the monastic system in England, embraced in the Anglican church and recognized by the state.

The gist of all this, and the startling character of it, lies in the implied idea of making the hierarchy superior to the government in the control of the people, virtually substituting priestly influence and, of necessity, the confessional, for the civil and criminal code in the eyes of the people.

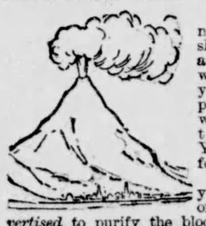
The effect of such a proposal in a Protestant community, coming from the midst of the Established Church, which is trying to adapt itself to the growing evangelism of the Christian world, and being put forward in the face of the present active opposition to the papacy and its methods, and its temporal aspirations, etc., may be easily imagined.

WITH A PROVISO.

Rome, April 1.—The Italian government, it is officially reported, may conclude to take an official part in the Chicago world's fair, provided congress will vote to indemnify the families of the Italians lynched at New Orleans.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Wooster, O., April 1.—The people of Dalton are greatly excited over the alleged foul death of Miss Ada Eversole, aged 19, who died last Saturday morning after a little more than a day's illness.



An eruption, no matter how slight, warns you and every one who sees it that your blood isn't pure. If you're wise, you'll heed the warning. You'll look about for a remedy.

And this is what you'll find: plenty of medicines advertised to purify the blood, but just one that's guaranteed—and that is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It's a medicine that does what is promised for it—that's the reason. It rouses every organ into healthy action, purifies and enriches the blood, and through it cleanses and renews the entire system. All Blood, Skin and Scalp Diseases, from a common eruption to the worst Scrofula are cured by it. For Tetter, Salt-rheum, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, Tumors, and Swellings, it's an unequaled remedy.

If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back. You pay only for the good you get.

ALARM IN PARIS

Of What May Day Will Bring Forth.

Grave Fears of Anarchist Outrages

Have Aroused the Whole French People.

Ravachol and His Many Crimes.

He Has Given Up All Hope of Securing His Liberty and Expects to Meet Death on the Guillotine.

Paris, April 1.—Notwithstanding the anarchist outrages, meetings are being nightly held in the Rue de Temple for the purpose of organizing the May day demonstration.

The matter now under discussion is whether the program of the demonstration shall be left to the secretariat of labor, which consists of 21 members of all shades of opinion, or to a new committee formed for the purpose.

The latter plan finds favor, as there is a growing feeling among French socialists that political influences are transforming the secretariat into a mere nursery for parliamentary candidates.

It appears certain that Fourmies will again be chosen as a center, with the view of making an appeal to the troops.

A manifesto will shortly be issued by the prominent men in every group.

M. Rovanet is hopeful that the municipal council will patronize the movement, by giving the men in its employ a day off. As the demonstration takes place this year on a Sunday, the concession will be easier.

As the day approaches the authorities, both in Paris and the provinces, are getting very anxious.

The authorities believe that the false reports of anarchist outrages are being spread for the purpose of intensifying public apprehension.

A rumor became prevalent on Thursday night that another explosion had taken place on the Boulevard St. Germain. In an incredibly short time this information had reached every important center of the capital.

It was announced to the newspapers by telephone. The deputies discussed it eagerly in the lobbies of the chamber. Two persons—whose good faith it was impossible to suspect—declared solemnly that they had heard it on the very best authority, and that it had been twice confirmed. On investigation the whole story was found to be a hoax.

The police wonder why such false information was spread about in so short a time, with so singular an assumption of veracity, and communicated to the very people—and apparently only to them—who were in the best position to give it the widest publicity.

Precisely the same circumstances were noticeable just two days previously, when the report ran that an explosion had occurred at the Credit Lyonnaise, and it will take a very credulous person to believe that the 150 anarchists in Paris, the largest proportion of whom belong considerably to the lowest classes of the working population, could have organized so successfully the spreading about of this fictitious news.

Nor can this rumor be ascribed to panic. No such feeling exists among the general public. It was mainly to deputies, senators and journalists that the information was communicated. The telephone played a prominent part in its propagation. The police are actively at work to discover the authors of the false reports. The latest crime charged against Ravachol is robbing a church, although the police have not yet given the particulars of this sacrilege. This enlarges the list of his crimes to include dynamite outrages, several murders, counterfeiting, robberies, grave plundering and sacrilege. Now that the police have Ravachol in the toils, information against him is pouring in from many quarters.

It appears that until he was arrested, many of those who were aware of his misdeeds hesitated to speak, such was their fear of his vengeance. Now so much evidence is being piled up against the man that the public are asking whether it is creditable to the efficiency of the police that such a desperate criminal should have been so long at large in Paris.

Ravachol himself has apparently given up all hope of escaping the guillotine, and seems inclined to glory in his crimes, and to be not unwilling to be regarded as a monster of guilt.

His denials amount almost to admissions and the deeds which he has acknowledged are enough to give him first rank among the criminal class.

His grave robberies were among the meanest of his crimes. It is said that he would watch for the funeral notices of wealthy people, find where they were interred, visit the graves at night, and if opportunities were favorable, dig up the corpse and strip it of any valuable articles that were left upon it.

If he could get nothing else he would take the coffin plate, melt it down and sell it. How many deeds of this kind he has perpetrated is unknown.

It is also intimated that he disposed of bodies to medical institutions and while there is no proof, there is some suspicion that Ravachol, in fact, was a burker.

As to this nothing definite has been made known by the authorities. An active investigation of Ravachol's character is in progress and it is believed that when all is known it will startle the world.

Ravachol is known to have a large quantity of dynamite hidden in some place of which his accomplices, who betrayed him, are not aware. So far he has obstinately refused to reveal the hiding place.

The threatening letters have been received by the police commissary who was in charge of the officers who arrested Ravachol. The waiter and restaurant keeper who gave the information to the police have received similar missives. The police have learned that Ravachol in some way obtained a permit in regular form to obtain 1,500 cartridges from dynamite stores near the bourse. The police are trying to find out how the permit was procured, the regulations on that subject being stringent.

CHIEF JUSTICE DRAKE DEAD.

Washington, April 1.—Charles D. Drake, ex-chief justice of the court of claims, was found dead in his bed this morning at his residence in this city. His death was entirely unexpected, as last night he attended prayer meeting at the Western Presbyterian church and took part as usual. He was 61 years old.

LOST IN THE FLAMES.

Scranton, Pa., April 1.—The barn of Dr. Wm. Haggerty, with its contents, including two valuable trotting horses, was burned this morning. The Grace Reformed church adjoining, was badly damaged. St. Cecelia convent also near by, had a narrow escape. Loss about $5,000.

To Fight Chawley.

London, April 1.—Pritchard, the well-known pugilist, is after Charley Mitchell. He has issued a challenge to him to fight for $5,000 a side and a purse, for the championship.

been thought likely that this debate would continue for two or three weeks, as there is no limit to discussion in the senate. There is a lurking suspicion that Senator Dolph's proposition, made yesterday afternoon to consider the calendar for two whole days, is an attempt to postpone Senator Morgan's resolutions. No objection was made to Mr. Dolph's request for the transaction of business under rule 8, and after the Indian appropriation bill is concluded the calendar, by unanimous consent, will have the right of way for two days.

It is not evident at present how Senator Morgan's resolutions can produce any result beyond a full discussion of the silver question. They provide for no legislation, and it is very doubtful if a motion to take up any free coinage bill in the senate can be carried.

Yesterday afternoon Representatives Bland and Pierce came into the senate chamber and had quite a lengthy conference with Senators Pugh and Bates. The nature of their conversation could not be ascertained, but in view of Senator Morgan's resolutions, it was conjectured to have a bearing on the coming silver discussion in the senate.

GOLDEN DOLLARS IN A POT.

After Many Years the Plowshare Turns Up a $3,000 Treasure Trove.

Ozark, Ark., April 1.—During the troublesome times during the war, Mrs. Mary Wilson buried a jar containing $3,000 in gold. Her death was very sudden, and her heirs found no clue which would lead to the discovery of the money. Not long since, Milleage Whitlock, who was plowing on the Wilson farm, found a jar and its contents. The find leaked out, and the grandchildren of Mrs. Wilson have brought suit against Whitlock to recover the money.

ROLLING MILL MEN TO MEET.

Youngstown, April 1.—The annual meeting of the rollers, heaters and finishers of this section and Pittsburg will be held here Saturday, the visitors being entertained and tendered a banquet by the Mahoning and Shenango Valley Camping club. It is expected that at this meeting the rollers, heaters and finishers will decide regarding the wage question of roughers to be incorporated into the new scale at the scale convention to be held in Pittsburg in June.

DR. TAYLOR ILL.

New York, April 1.—The Rev. Dr. Wm. M. Taylor, pastor of the Broadway tabernacle, Thirty-fourth street and Broadway, is ill at his residence, having suffered a slight attack of paralysis Tuesday. At first it was thought to be only a slight stroke, but now some danger is apprehended.

AN ALLIANCE DEFENSIVE.

The United States and Argentine Republic

Have Entered Into an Important Agreement.

Admiral Walker the Bearer of News to Buenos Ayres Which Has Greatly Alarmed British Circles.

London, April 1.—The Times' correspondent at Buenos Ayres telegraphs as follows: An indiscreet notice in the Press, the origin of which has been traced to one of the ministers, stating that Admiral Walker was the bearer of happy proposals which insured the settlement of questions between the Argentine Republic and the United States.

This was supported by subsequent postprandial speeches of the American minister, the secretary of legation and the American officers here.

Official denial led to close investigation of the affair. As a result I have come to the conclusion that the Argentine declaration that reciprocity with the United States has been declined was only half the truth.

At first the Argentine government declined to hold their warships at the disposal of the United States, but the government has now accepted in principle Admiral Walker's generous offer of United States' protection in case the Argentine Republic becomes involved in boundary questions with Chile and Brazil, and of protection against foreign interference if the Argentine Republic attempts to cancel her European obligations.

Brazil, desiring to rescind the reciprocity treaty which was obtained, as the Brazilians declare, under promises which have not been fulfilled, has now been thrown over by the United States.

Chile might perhaps be attacked through the Argentine Republic, while funds will be advanced to Peru to enable her to pay Chile the Arica indemnity, the consideration for this being the excellent and easily defensible part of Chimbote, which is to be held ready as a United States naval station.

This is part of Secretary Blaine's ambitious program to destroy European influence in South Atlantic and the Pacific in order to secure a good card for the presidential election. The present moribund Argentine government does not represent the feeling of the most valuable class of public opinion in that it has accepted a semi-protectorate from the United States. The government, however, insists that it gives absolutely nothing and accepts only what binds the United States and not Argentina. It is alleged that Admiral Walker had also been negotiating with Uruguay.

BARDSLEY'S BIG STEAL.

The Investigation Committee's Report.

Changes Recommended in the Laws to Prevent a Repetition of Such Large Thefts.

Philadelphia, April 1.—The report of the Bardsley investigating committee was completed and presented to the council's committee on finance. The committee advises, first, the passage of an ordinance regulating city deposits; second, the increasing of the city treasurer's bond to $250,000; third, that the city controller be required to audit state as well as city funds. "Your committee would state that nothing in the course of their examination shows that Wanamaker had any dealings with Bardsley, or was responsible for the wrecking of the Keystone bank."

Briefly as may be summarized, it is shown that Bardsley invested in speculation $1,116,693. This money was paid to his brokers, Glendenning & Co., principally through checks on the Keystone bank, though it appears that more than $150,000 was borrowed by him from the People's bank with which to buy stock from William H. Kemble, Peter A. B. Widener and William L. Elkins, depositing $104,067 state funds in the bank. Upon this total speculation of $1,116,693.13 Bardsley made losses aggregating $170,569, and gains of $118,634, a net loss of $51,935, which should be increased by the $100,000 of Baltimore Traction company's bonds.

A recapitulation of accounts shows that Bardsley's net deficiency without counting $1,121,043 sunk in the Keystone bank in due bills and checks is $553,835. In addition to this his unlawful gains swell the sum to $778,835. Should the city and county of Philadelphia be finally surcharged with the amount of personal property tax due and remaining unpaid to the commonwealth of Pennsylvania June 1, 1891, and should all payments made by John Bardsley out of commingled funds prior to June 1, 1891, be regarded as legitimate, irrespective of the source from which the moneys paid were derived, the total possible losses to the city are estimated at $1,268,509.

A GOVERNMENT SUCCESS.

The Guelph Fund Bill Passed by the Landtag.

Berlin, April 1.—The landtag to-day passed the Guelph fund bill, by which the Duke of Cumberland, heir to the throne of Hanover, receives a large share of the so-called Guelph fund, being the proceeds of the sequestrated property of the late king of Hanover, the duke in return, it is understood, virtually surrendering to Prussia his claim to the Hanoverian crown. The passage of the bill is a government success of some importance in view of the recent ministerial crisis.

JOHN OWEN DEAD.

Detroit, April 1.—John Owen, venerable and well beloved, oldest resident of Detroit of those who were not born here, died at his residence, 61 Fort street west, yesterday morning.

Mr. Owen was born in the vicinity of Toronto, March 20, 1809, and had therefore just passed his 83d birthday.

PROGRESS OF A WAR.

Conflicting Reports from Venezuela.

Both Sides Claim to be Winning.

Latest Information, However, Seems to Indicate That the Insurgents Under Crespo Are Growing Stronger.

New York, April 1.—The Herald this morning has Caracas, Venezuela, advices from official sources which say that the revolutionists are reported to be in full flight on the road leading from Valencia.

General Crespo's forces are said to be completely disorganized and panic stricken, and Crespo himself is reported to be fleeing on horseback toward Guanore. In official circles, the dispatch adds, a strong anti-American feeling is apparent, and foreigners are seeking refuge in the different consulates.

Advices to the same paper from the insurgent side have a different story to tell. They are that Crespo's forces are being rapidly augmented, both with men and arms, and that by the middle of April he will have a force of from 10,000 to 20,000 men, who will begin an advance upon Caracas. These latter facts agree with the dispatches received by the United Press last night.

Peace Restored.

Washington, April 1.—Advices to Senor Bolet Paraza, the Venezuelan minister, from President Palacio yesterday, state that "peace has been almost completely restored." The cabinet appointed is said to be entirely satisfactory to the people, and there is no interruption to the regular course of business.

The Venezuelan War.

Panama, April 1.—To-day's advices from Venezuela represent that the revolutionary movement is not crushed and that the volunteers are flocking from all directions to the aid of the insurgents.

Palacio is almost universally unpopular and it is said that, but for fear of his severity, there would be an uprising in Caracas at once.

His imprisonment of the supreme court judges caused general execration throughout the country, and has also aroused a strong sentiment of indignation in Columbia. The insurgents are mostly of the intelligent class. The government forces are largely composed of hastily made levies, driven in by a press gang of regular troops. They have no knowledge, whatever, of the issues at stake, and serve only because they are compelled.

They make hardy soldiers, being able to go for days without adequate food, and are not wanting in courage.

The militia officers are mostly tradesmen and planters, and wear gorgeous uniforms, while the common soldiers are usually without shoes and in rags. Palacio has got money by a forced loan, and as he will pay the raw levies nothing, he can carry on the war for some time so far as his finances are concerned. It is believed that the insurgents will thoroughly organize before making another advance.

Gen. Crespo is considered by many to be the ablest military strategist in Venezuela, and his ultimate triumph is not doubted here. Palacio, it is said, wishes to establish himself as president for life, with absolute authority.

CHILD STOLEN IN CLEVELAND

A Little Girl Lured Away by a Tramp.

A Diligent Search Made by the Police Fails to Get Any Trace of Her.

Cleveland, April 1.—Edna Callahan, the five-year-old daughter of Mark Callahan, a saloonkeeper who lives at No. 11 Hoyt avenue, left her home last night about 6 o'clock, and all efforts to find her proved unavailing.

The police of the Fourth precinct were notified and a description of the girl was given to them. About 12 o'clock Callahan rushed into the station house at the corner of Willson and Euclid avenues with additional information.

It seems that a tramp went into a saloon on Hoyt avenue early in the evening and became involved in a quarrel with the men who were assembled there. He was thrown out at about the same time little Edna Callahan was playing on a pile of chips near by.

It is alleged the tramp began playing with her, and having won the child's confidence, lured her away. When last seen they were walking along the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern tracks toward the city. The father of the child and a number of his friends tracked the man and child to the rear of the Baackes wire nail works, but then lost all trace of them.

A little dog which belongs to the Callahans followed the tramp and child to that place and then returned home. Lieutenant Johnson sent a detail of men to search the vicinity where the child was last seen, and the fact of the supposed abduction was telephoned to all stations in the city. It is thought that the tramp may have taken this method of revenge for the treatmen he received in the saloon. It is certain that he will be badly treated if he meets with any of the searching parties and the story proves true.

The tramp is about 45 years old and has about two weeks' growth of beard on his face. He was very dirty and wore a shabby suit of clothes.

FELL UNDER THE WHEELS.

A Big Four Conductor Killed by the Cars—A Failure.

St. Marys, O., April 1.—(Special)—B. Shull, a "Big Four" conductor, fell from a rapidly moving freight train, under the cars, at Sidney, last night and had both of his legs almost severed from the body. He died after several hours of suffering.

A great sensation was caused at Botkins, a village in Shelby county, 12 miles south of this city, last night over the failing of A. Gutman, a merchant and grain dealer, who has been doing business there for the past quarter of a century. His assets are about $10,000; liabilities, $15,000.

THE TOTTERING WALLS

Continue to Alarm Napoleon People.

Efforts to Save Two Business Structures.

Captain Broadnix Sustains Serious Injuries by a Fall—A Runaway With Serious Results—New Postmasters.

Napoleon, April 1.—(Special)—Workmen were at once put to work on the tottering buildings of Wilson and Spengler and by means of huge props braced against adjacent buildings across the alley have stopped the buildings from going to pieces.

The division wall is sagged at least 14 inches, and continues slowly to settle.

About 5 o'clock yesterday evening another mass of brick fell from the division wall to the sidewalk, though doing but little damage.

Although a total collapse is possible it is thought that prompt action will avoid it.

While willing workers were endeavoring to save the building a long ladder, borrowed from the fire department, slipped, throwing Captain Broadnix to the ground, a distance of 25 feet. Had it not been for first striking a rope stretched to keep back the crowd, he would undoubtedly have been killed. As it was he struck the curb stone with great force, bruising himself but breaking no bones.

The Wilsons are moving their large stock of dry goods to the Heller block, where they will remain until the old building is taken down and a new one erected. The buildings are situated in the very heart of the town.

While near the buildings yesterday afternoon a team belonging to Jacob Westerman became frightened, and running away threw an old man and girl to the paved street. They occupied the rear seat. The old man, whose name is Peter Reichart, sustained a collar bone fracture and was otherwise badly injured. He is 80 years old and will die. The girl was but very little hurt.

The fact that John Sherman has sent the name of George Russell to the senate for confirmation as Napoleon's postmaster is causing not a little dissatisfaction among local republicans, especially the Grand Army men, who claim that they have precedence to one who was never in the war and who became a resident of Napoleon but a few years since. They have sworn to make it "hot" for him.

The democrats are satisfied with the appointment, as all they want is a good postmaster, and as Russell has a family of some 14 who will assist in the running of the office the work cannot help but be performed.

THE FREE SILVER BATTLE.

Friends of the Measure Making a Hard Fight.

Strong Efforts Being Made to Postpone the Debate in the Senate on Monday.

Washington, April 1.—The resolution introduced by Senator Morgan in the senate yesterday has created considerable gossip. Since Senator Stewart gave notice that on Monday he would call up his free coinage bill it has become apparent that his motion to take up the measure would likely be defeated. It is shown that at least six senators who favor free silver would vote against taking the measure up for consideration Monday.

In order to offset the almost certain defeat of Mr. Stewart's effort, Senator Morgan introduced his resolution, intending thereby to secure a full and free discussion of the silver question. It has even

PLACED IN JAIL.

Deeming Passes Through the Excited Crowds in Safety.

Melbourne, April 1.—Deeming, the murderer, arrived in Melbourne this morning on the steamer Ballarat. An immense crowd awaited him, but the wharf and the streets were strongly guarded by the police and he was safely escorted to the jail. The crowd hooted the prisoner but attempted no violence.

SAVED FROM DESTRUCTION.

No More Racing to be Allowed in Central Park.

Albany, N. Y., April 1.—The Central park speedway bill which aroused such opposition among citizens of New York city, as threatening to injure the park, was repealed by the senate to-day.

APPEALING FOR AID.

Washington, April 1.—Ex-Gov. John W. Hoyt, chairman of the Russian famine relief committee of the United States, is sending out an appeal addressed to the mayor and council or other chief authorities of the incorporated cities and villages of the whole country. It presents a soul-stirring picture of the sufferings in the famine districts.

THE WOOD WILL CASE.

London, April 1.—A judicial decree has been entered confirming the compromise in the Wood will case. Notice has been given of an appeal from the decision of the judge on the question of the custody of the children, who are beneficiaries under the will.

DECREASED REVENUES.

Ottawa, Ont., April 1.—The annual report of the minister of inland revenue has been issued. It shows that the receipts last year verged on $7,000,000, a decrease of $800,000 as compared with 1890.

THE WALLSALL ANARCHISTS.

Was There a Conspiracy to Convict Them?

Sensational Charges Made at Staffordshire Assizes, Which the Judge Fails to Notice.

London, April 1.—The trial at the Staffordshire assizes, of the alleged Walsall anarchists was more interesting to-day. The confession of Deakin, one of the accused, that the bombs were being prepared for use in Russia, was supported by the evidence of Inspector Melville who had charge of tracing out the plot.

Inspector Melville declined to answer questions as to whether he had used bribery to obtain evidence against the accused, and the judge refused to compel him to answer.

Council for the defense declared that there was ground for suspecting that the police had planned the explosives for the purpose of establishing a sensational case against the prisoners and gaining credit with their superiors.

SHOT WHILE HUNTING.

St. Marys, O., April 1.—(Special)—William Scott, aged 15 years, of Ft. Recovery, shot himself while out hunting. The bullet penetrated his heart, causing death instantly.

TWO PIONEERS DEAD.

Tiffin, O., April 1.—(Special)—The death of two pioneers residing near Attica is reported, Jacob Ebersole, aged 85, and Mrs. Amanda Riddle, aged 70.

Madrid, April 1.—The Duchess of Pastrana has died suddenly. She leaves her great wealth to the Jesuits.

THE STORM PERIOD

It Has Broken in the West With Fury

And Great Damage is Reported.

Wires Are Down for Many Miles.

Nelson, Neb., Suffered Much Loss.

The Roaring Storm Could be Seen and Heard Ten Miles Before It Broke and Crippled the Prairie Towns.

Omaha, Neb., April 1.—A special from Nelson, Neb., says: A terrible cyclone struck Nelson at 6:15 p. m. yesterday. It came from the southwest, and could be seen for at least ten miles before it struck the town.

It was preceded by a terrific hailstorm lasting several minutes, after which the worst was thought to be over with, but this hope was soon blasted by the appearance in the southwest of the coming storm, which proved to be the worst and most destructive which has ever visited this section of Nebraska.

A heavy wind had prevailed from the southwest for some time, which seemed to carry the cyclone right along with it, and it was plain to be seen that a terrible cyclone was raging in the southwest for several minutes before it reached Nelson. The clouds circling round and round were plainly visible for several minutes.

The storm struck the town with terrible force at 6:15 p. m. Many rushed into cellars and stores for safety. Damages have been estimated at $100,000.

The First National Bank was unroofed; the Opera block, three stories, was unroofed and badly damaged; the Union Block was unroofed and southwest end torn out; the Arlington hotel was unroofed; the new school house which was completed at the beginning of the year at a cost of $15,000, was destroyed, the Presbyterian church was badly wrecked, and a large number of residences were completely wrecked, among which were those of Miss Mary Brayman, Dr. J. F. Buffington, J. M. Gammil, John R. Eaton, Henry Pope, H. H. Williams, D. I. McHenry, W. I. Temple, T. W. Cole, I. G. Foster, Robt. Greenwood and Thomas Nichols.

These buildings were completely destroyed, there being nothing left to show where they stood excepting the cellars and foundations. One-half of one house, that of Henry Pope, was carried along the track of the storm nearly an eighth of a mile with the contents and Mrs. Pope and the two children. Fortunately, however, the family escaped uninjured.

Miss Mary Brayman, assistant principal of the Nelson high school, is the only one known to have been seriously hurt. As the storm was approaching she took refuge in the cellar of her house, and thinking the worst was over she came up, and before she could get back the storm completely demolished her house, badly bruising her, breaking her leg and several ribs.

Later it was learned that Mrs. John Eaton was seriously injured.

Most of the buildings were insured only against fire, and the loss to owners will be almost total. Our correspondent has yet been unable to learn anything certain as to the damage done in the surrounding country.

Late Reports.

Kansas City, Mo., April 1.—A severe wind storm passed over a portion of Kansas last evening about 6 o'clock. Details are meager, but it is known that considerable damage was done.

The storm seems to have first taken on the character of a cyclone near Lyons, Ks. It passed northeast of that town and did little damage to the buildings but attained sufficient velocity to uproot several trees on the outskirts of the town.

At Salina it was still more severe and cause great damage, demolishing a number of outbuildings in the edge of the town.

The storm greatly interfered with telegraph facilities, there not being a workable wire to Denver from any point east of Topeka all night after 7 o'clock, and no wire whatever after 10 o'clock.

The wires were so completely prostrated that there was no possibility of obtaining details of the destruction the cyclone undoubtedly wrought.

BRYAN NOTES.

Common Pleas Court Adjourned—To Vote on Waterworks.

Bryan, O., April 1.—(Special)—All cases on the docket being disposed of Judge Snook pronounced Williams county common pleas court adjourned at exactly 4:30 p. m. yesterday.

Before adjournment Frank Smith and Bert Cookingham were told to stand up and ask why sentence should not be pronounced, and in response they stated that they were at the mercy of the court. The judge gave Smith one year for stealing smoked hams, and Cookingham 18 months for attempt at burglary.

Besides the sentence, the latter carries a bullet wound which he received on the night of the attempt.

The question of whether Bryan shall have waterworks or not will be voted on at the polls next Monday.

LADIES IN COURT.

They Conduct Their Cases With a Remarkable Degree of Skill.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 1.—This morning the habeas corpus case of Lillie Connett, an inmate of the Female Reformatory, was called before Judge Harper.

Attorney W. H. Ogborn represented the plaintiff but no one was present to appear for the defendants, Supt. Sarah F. Keeley and the board of managers.

The court asked the ladies if their attorney was coming, but Miss Keeley replied that they had none employed but were there to defend the case themselves.

Mr. Ogborn then made an elaborate argument for his client.

Miss Keeley followed with an argument for the defendants, which she did with such success that the plaintiff asked for more time to present more authorities.

The court was astonished at the ease with which the ladies handled their case.

W. R. C. AT OBERLIN.

Oberlin, April 1.—The annual convention of the Thirteenth district, comprising the counties of Huron, Lorain, Medina and Erie, of the W. R. C., met in G. A. R. hall here, Mrs. Welsh, of Bellevue, being president.

The attendance was not very large, there only being six visiting corps present. The forenoon was given to speechmaking and reading of letters from the department officers and others. The address of welcome was delivered by Mrs. Barnum, of Oberlin corps, and was responded to by several of the visiting officers. The afternoon was given up to the exemplification of the ritual, and was conducted by the Oberlin corps. After a question box and address by the president the meeting adjourned. The next annual meeting will be held in Bellevue, O.

Kansas City, April 1.—There was no strike of the telegraph operators of the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad to-day as threatened.

MR. BLAND INTERVIEWED

On the Attempt to Force Cloture.

Why Speaker Crisp Took the Stand He Did—The Free Silver Side of the Question.

Washington, April 1.—Representative Bland, the chairman of free silver in the house, in conversation with a reporter today expressed the opinion that considerable misunderstanding existed on the subject of the proposed "cloture rule," which was asked to be adopted. Mr. Bland said:

"The difficulty we have had with the silver bill is an apparent misunderstanding as to the real nature of the rule that the speaker had intended to report to the house. It is not a cloture rule further than that it is in aid of the previous question.

"The previous question is the cloture rule of the house. We have had it for over 50 years. There is no cloture rule in the senate. The rule proposed to be reported to pass the silver bill was simply a rule to prevent filibustering by declaring it to be out of order for the speaker to entertain filibustering motions.

"The standing rule that we have adopted gives to the committee on rules the power in this way to stop filibustering. That is to say, the committee on rules reports a rule to the house providing that pending a proposition on which the house wishes to come to a vote the speaker is absolutely prohibited from entertaining filibustering.

"When this rule is reported the house itself must adopt it or reject it, so that it is the house who must determine whether or not the house wishes to stop filibustering. The difference between this rule and the rules of the last congress is that the rules of the Fifty-first congress gave to the speaker himself the absolute power to refuse to entertain any dilatory motions. The rules of the Fifty-first congress vested this power in the speaker.

"The rules of this congress vest this power in the house itself. But the house cannot act upon it without the report from the committee on rules. It seems that the enemies of the silver bill, after ascertaining that the speaker intended to report a rule to prevent filibustering, raised a hue and cry against cloture. A great many of our members being new members were misled as to its actual nature.

"Since the matter is over, I have learned to my satisfaction that the speaker was beset by a good many members who held for free coinage, and they told him they would not vote for such a rule. Consequently he was apprehensive that the majority of his own party would vote against him. In view of this fact, he changed his mind and refused to report a cloture rule until a majority asked for it.

"I criticised his action very severely, but did so without full information. I did not censure him at this time for his action.

"During Mr. Carlisle's administration as speaker filibustering became so common that it was impossible to pass a bill where a few active opponents filibustered against it, and nearly every bill of importance was filibustered against. It was a notable fact that Gen. Weaver of Iowa, then a member of the house, acting alone, prevented the transaction of any business in the house for three or four days, until the speaker, the house and the country were disgusted with the scene. The democrats then realized the necessity of some rule by which filibustering could be prevented by the house, and had the republicans in the Fifty-first congress gone no further than our rules go now the democrats could not have reasonably objected to them."

TO FIGHT THE TRUST.

Relief Will be Sought from Congress.

Wholesale Grocers in the East to Do Battle Against the Sugar Combine.

Philadelphia, April 1.—Opposition which has developed among the wholesale grocers, sugar brokers and others in interest in this city by the absorption by the sugar combination of the three sugar refineries of this city, has crystallized into a movement to make a fight in congress against the trust.

The first step will be the introduction of a bill in the house to repeal the duty of one-half a cent on refined sugars, which is claimed serves no other purpose now since there is but one interest, but to allow the trust to control the prices of both refined and raw sugars.

An effort has been made to build a new independent refinery, but the projectors have found it rather difficult to secure subscriptions to the stock of the enterprise on account of the well known methods of hostility employed by the trust to crush out rivals.

FELL IN LOVE WITH BIRDIE.

Strong Affection of One Girl for Another.

The Affection Was Not Reciprocated and One of the Girls Committed Suicide.

Altoona, Pa., April 1.—Miss Emma Fox shot and killed herself here Wednesday night because Miss Birdie Boate, with whom she had fallen in love, refused to return her affection.

The young women are both of good parentage and well-to-do. Almost a year ago Miss Fox began to show an affection for Miss Boate. The latter never returned the love and had lately tried to avoid her.

Finally Miss Fox's attentions became such that Miss Boate became frightened and never left her home unattended. This worried Miss Fox, and ultimately led to her taking her own life.

FIRE ON A STEAMBOAT.

The Golden Rule Devoured by Flames.

One Passenger Lost Her Life in the Water.

Remarkably Rapid Spread of the Flames Made It Impossible to Save Anything — Many Narrow Escapes.

Cincinnati, April 1.—Shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon as the steamer Golden Rule was about leaving the big wharf boat at the public landing just above Main street, and while her passengers were saying good-bye to friends, there was a sudden burst of smoke from the hatchway directly under the stairway at the front of the boat, and in a moment the wildest panic seized passengers, friends, officers, roustabouts and all.

Nobody could account for the sudden outbreak of the fire, nor for its rapid spread. Only the nearest man or men to the stairway was able to get down to the lower deck and escape to the wharf boat. All the rest were driven to the rear of the cabin, where the wildest scenes were enacted. Women shrieked and fainted, and it required all the courage and presence of mind of the men to prevent a horrible holocaust. Lying along the stern of the Golden Rule was the Keystone State, next to the wharf boat. To her the passengers ran and clambered onto her upper deck. Some sprang to a fuel barge. But the fire was so fierce and sudden that the Keystone State was compelled to back into the river.

Then some brave and thoughtful men ran from the shore, caught the stern of the Golden Rule and drew it into the wharf boat, and thus gave a means of escape to the few who had not got away otherwise. But one unfortunate passenger, Miss Nellie Maloney, who had been visiting friends in Cincinnati, made a rash attempt to jump too soon, and fell between the boat and barge.

The gallant clerk, Mr. F. M. Bondurant, who had delayed too long to get down the stairway and who after vainly trying to save his books and money, had jumped over the side of the steamer into the water and then clambered on the barge, saw Miss Maloney's body in the water.

He jumped in again and made a heroic effort to save her, but she disappeared under the wharf boat and was lost. She has a brother in Memphis.

The clerk himself might have followed, but for the assistance of a passenger. So far as is now known the only loss of life is that of Miss Nellie Maloney.

The great wharf boat of course was soon ablaze from end to end, and all its upper works were destroyed. The steamer Fleetwood, lying just above caught fire at the stern and narrowly escaped destruction. But for the fact that it was time for all to leave the wharf and had steam up four steamers instead of one would have been destroyed.

The Golden Rule, Capt. O. P. Shinkle, was worth from $20,000 to $25,000. She had a fine cargo estimated at $50,000. Everything was burned in less than an hour. The hull floated 200 feet and sank. The wharf boat was filled with merchandise, the value of which could only be guessed at. All the books of the office were lost.

It has been ascertained that Miss Nellie Maloney, who lost her life during the burning of the Golden Rule, lives in Cincinnati and was interested in a dress making establishment at 345 West Seventh street.

The fire when it once started spread so swiftly that men with teams on the great wharf boat were compelled to unhitch their horses and hurry out, leaving their wagons to be destroyed by the devouring flames.

The Cincinnati wharf boat was insured for $12,500, all in the Eureka Fire and Marine company. The steamer Golden Rule was insured for $15,000 in companies for which Capt. G. W. Near is agent, but how distributed has not been learned, as Capt. Near is out of town.

Eight People Drowned.

Cincinnati, April 1.—It is now known that there were eight people drowned from the steamer Golden Rule which burned yesterday at the foot of Sycamore street. There names are: Miss Nellie Maloney, Frank T. Riley, second mate, deck hands William Morrison and Matt Homer, four unknown colored roustabouts.

Mrs. Rev. George Easton, of New Orleans, is missing. Nothing is left of the Golden Rule but a water-logged, sunken hull and a partially consumed wheel. The Memphis wharf boat is a skeleton of charred timbers and the steamer Fleetwood is slightly damaged.

At first it was thought the fire started from the fire doors on the boiler deck, but it is pretty certain now that the fire started in the hold.

Either a barrel of coal oil, or one of varnish, burst when thrown down in the hold. The flames caught from the lanterns which the men used in the hold and spread rapidly. For this reason it is believed that at least four stevedores were caught in the place.

As near as can be roughly estimated the boat had a passenger list of about eighty, with a crew of perhaps ten stevedores, and the regular list of officers, cooks, etc. At the first cry of fire the passengers, many of whom were in the cabin, made haste to run for their lives, and almost all of them were saved.

The only passenger known to be dead is Miss Nellie Maloney. She was a friend of Capt. Shinkle's family and had gone down to the boat to bid her friends good-by. Her death must have been fearful, as it is thought that her body was caught by the wheel of the steamer Hercules Carrel, as a shred of her dress was found hanging to the wheel.

SUICIDE AT DAYTON.

Dayton, O., April 1.—The city was startled by the suicide of Col. Harley H. Sage by shooting. He had held minor offices, but saved no money, became despondent and fired the shot from which he will die. He was a gallant soldier through the war and came out as colonel of the 179th Ohio infantry. His present wife is a daughter of the late Col. Chas. Flood, of Columbus.

SENATOR BURNS

Of the Twelfth Ohio Senatorial District Makes a Strong Statement.

A Case That Dates From the Late War and Illustrates the Success In Cases of Long Standing.

The following statement from Senator Thomas A. Burns, who represents the Twelfth senatorial district in the present Ohio legislature, will be read with much interest by the senator's many friends in this city and vicinity. The statement is in his own words and over his signature:

"While in the federal service in the winters of 1861-62, I contracted a heavy cold, which brought on pneumonia and resulted in disease of the lungs and throat. From that time until my term of service ended, November, 1865, I was more or less affected. Just after my return from the army I had profuse hemorrhage of the lungs, which has occurred at intervals several times. About 1874 I was attacked with catarrh of the throat and lungs, and gastric catarrh of the stomach, which prostrated me for thirty days, so that I was not expected to recover. In the fall of 1881 I had another attack of catarrh of the head and throat which produced gathering in the head; entire deafness of the left ear; soreness of the throat and trachea, extending to the lungs, with profuse discharge from the nose and throat. In this condition three eminent physicians despaired of my recovery, and told me that I would have to procure other medical assistance, as they could do no more for me. I applied to a prominent physician of Cincinnati, specialist for throat and lung diseases, who gave me treatment, and I think did me much good, and I believe would have effected a cure had his diagnosis discovered the true cause of my disease. I have been treated for twenty years past by three very eminent physicians at my home, and to whose medical skill I give the honor affording me temporary relief.

"The first of January, 1892, seeing Dr. Copeland and associates' notice of treatment for catarrh and lung diseases, I called on them at their offices. Their diagnosis was so thorough that I was convinced that they had discovered the true cause of my debility. At my second visit the doctors removed from the nasal passage of the left side a polypi tumor larger than a quail's egg, and from the right side a tumor about half the size of the other. The operation was performed without pain or other inconvenience, and did not necessitate an hour's loss from business.

"I have been under the doctors' treatment for two months. Since the removal of the tumors or polypi I have experienced no trouble at all with catarrh of the head. My throat has not been sore since the operation. My general health is much better than it was before the treatment, and I feel greatly encouraged and that I shall not experience any further trouble with nasal catarrh.

"I want to say this is not a paid statement, but given for the benefit of any who may be likewise suffering.

"Dr. Copeland's charges to me were $5 per month and no more."

THOMAS A. BURNS.

Mr. Rice's Case.

It is rarely that the specialist, whose observation covers a wide range of throat and lung troubles and whose experience brings him in contact with many of the serious and desperate cases resulting from neglected catarrh, sees a more pronounced case and one more typical of what head and throat trouble, if neglected or not properly treated, may develop into, than the case of Mr. Ancil G. Rice, of 219 Dix street. As near as possible we give his own words:

"My trouble has all been due to chronic catarrh," says Mr. Rice, "and it was not neglected, either, for I have doctored for years, but been improperly treated. I had occasional violent headaches. My eyes were weak and watery and my nose was continually stopped up. I was forced to breathe through my mouth.

"My throat was always filling up with the dropping of the mucus from the head. I was hawking and spitting all the time. My throat was at times very sore and raw. My rest was poor at night and I was really unfit for business in the morning.

"As I said, I tried many prominent physicians, but experienced very little relief. I had heard and read of the success of Dr. Copeland and associates, and concluded to give them a trial. I did so with the result that my pains, aches and other troubles are all gone. The change in my condition is such that I unhesitatingly recommend Dr. Copeland and associates to all who suffer as I did."

Nasal Polypi Described by a Patient

"I had been troubled for a number of years," said Mr. George Hoffman, of 107 Empire street. "My head and nose was completely stopped up and I had to breathe through my mouth. This was due, in a measure, to the accumulation of mucus, but more especially to a number of polypi tumors which filled both nostrils. I had treated with a number of physicians but none of them discovered the tumors. Some time ago I called on Dr. Copeland and associates, and placed myself under their treatment. They immediately removed seven polypi tumors and I was able to breathe through my nostrils, something I had not done in years. They then treated my catarrh, and I am happy to say I am feeling better to-day than I have for years. The removal of the tumors was without the slightest pain or loss of blood. I cannot recommend Dr. Copeland and associates too highly."

Results In a Case Treated by Mail.

Portage, O., Feb. 9, 1892.

Copeland Medical Institute, Toledo, O.:

Gentlemen:—Since taking your treatment for catarrh, I am very much better. My general health is much improved, my sense of smell has returned. My case was a chronic one and will require time. I am greatly encouraged and anticipate a complete cure. Refer anyone to me.

Yours respectfully,

N. C. BESANSON.

A Prominent Real Estate Agent Tells of the Removal of Twenty Polypi Tumors.

Among the many prominent real estate agents in Toledo, none are more popular or more favorably known than Mr. J. J. Sumner, whose offices are at the corner of Superior and Madison streets, and who lives at 721 Prouty avenue. Mr. Sumner tells of his experience with Dr. Copeland and associates as follows:

"I had catarrh for a long time. My nose stopped up so that I could breathe only with great difficulty. In damp weather I could not breathe at all. I suffered from terrible, racking headaches. I often thought my head would burst with the throbbing and the pain. There was a constant flow of mucus from my nose, and my eyes became sore and watery. I did not sleep well, and I found that I was losing my sense of smell. I was most distressed, however, about my voice, which changed in tone until it sounded as if I plunched my nose with my fingers while talking.

"I was quite in despair, when after reading the testimonials of the patients of Dr. Copeland and associates I determined to make a trial of their treatment. I accordingly went to the Copeland Medical Institute, and it was only a short time until I began to breathe through my nose, until the headaches disappeared and until the polypus growths were removed. I can now hear the natural voice that has returned to me, much to my comfort and delight. I sleep well and I feel well. I have only one fear, and that is that the polypi may return, so I have concluded to continue the treatment for another month, at the end of which time I shall be forever rid. I hope, of the complaint that for four years made life a burden to me. I am glad to add my small tribute of praise to the splendid work of these physicians."

DO YOU WANT GOLD?

Cripple Creek is not a health resort. It is a wealth resort. Quite a different Location, near Pike's Peak, in Colorado. Gold—bright, yellow gold, is found at grass roots and in the rock formation.

Reliable experts claim this is to-day the richest camp in Colorado. Assays average $100 per ton, and have run as high as $5,000. One hundred people a day are now rushing to Fremont, chief town of the district.

The chance of a life-time is worth looking after!

You can get there quickly and comfortably by taking Santa Fe Route. Only line with no change of cars from Chicago, Kansas City and other principal cities to Florissant, nearest railroad station, with daily stages to Fremont.

"No baking powder is gaining public favor so rapidly as Cleveland's."

One reason is people like to know what they are eating, and the composition of Cleveland's baking powder is given on every label.

So many baking powders containing ammonia or alum are widely advertised as "absolutely pure," the best way is to refuse any brand the composition of which is concealed.

IN THE AIR

Are Rumors of Serious Pending Troubles for Builders.

The threatened trouble between the journeymen painters and the boss painters will probably come to the surface on Monday morning next. THE SHERIFF'S FEE FUND

The sheriff's fee fund is still bankrupt, and the ghost has not walked since the new law went into operation.

This month the sheriff nor Deputy Teal get any money and the other boys divide what is left.

THE IRONVILLE DOCKS.

Vessels Will Commence Loading About Monday.

Coal Traffic Agent Vance, of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad, said this morning that the company's docks at Ironville were in shape for the season, and that a number of vessels were expected here Monday or Tuesday, for loading, to move just as soon as possible afterwards. The lakes are rapidly becoming free from ice. A few more days like this will put things in shape.

His record will be hard to beat.

WANTS TO QUIT.

Major Overman Trying to Resign from the Army.

This morning's Cleveland Plain Dealer has the following in reference to Major Overman:

It is evident that Major Overman is conversant with the steps that are being taken to again try him by court-martial on new charges, as he has made another ineffectual effort to resign his position in the army just as he did while the other charges were pending. It is learned at the war department to-day, however, that his resignation will not be accepted. The officials are close-mouthed and it is impossible to learn the exact nature or scope of the new charges under which he is to be again put on trial.

FIERCE FISTIC ENCOUNTER.

A Milkman and a Peddler Have a Rough and Tumble on Cherry Street.

About 8 o'clock this morning a garden truck peddler hitched his horse in front of a store on Cherry street between Erie and Ontario. A moment later a milkman drove up and hitched in the rear of the peddler's wagon. The latter's horse had about finished a good-sized breakfast on apples and other fruits when the peddler appeared. Then the milkman put in an appearance, and a war of words was followed by such a rough and tumble as has not been seen in Toledo in a year. They fought first with their fists and then with their whips. On the middle of the street, in and out of the gutters and on the sidewalks they fought, and yet no one interfered. When both were thoroughly used up they stepped into their respective wagons and drove off.

TWO SHARPERS

Dressed as Farmers Fleecing Servant Girls Out of Change.

A couple of men are working a game about town with which a number of people have been caught. They buy a case of eggs or a barrel of apples, dress up as farmers and start out on a peddling tour. Whenever they are proffered a large bill they retain part of the change saying that it is all they have at the time and promise to come back with the rest shortly. They don't come back. Look out for them. They are working it mostly on servant girls.

THE WILBURS MAKE A HIT

In the Black Hussar—It Is Their Best Opera.

The Wilburs gave the best performance of the week last evening when the Black Hussar was presented. The work of Dorothy Morton, E. A. Clark and Emmet Drew was especially good. The base ball game was one of the best bits of burlesque the company has ever done. This evening the Beggar Student will be presented. To-morrow afternoon the company will sing Dorothy, and to-morrow evening the Grand Duchess.

Mr. Pierce is at present engaged in the marble business in Chicago. He will not return to Toledo for some time yet.

HOUSE GIRLS SCARCE,

Is What Supt. Murphy's Free Employment Bureau Report Shows.

The following is Supt. Murphy's report for the week ending March 31. Situations wanted, males, 66; females, 26. Help wanted, males, 26; females, 61. Situations procured, males, 19; females, 23. The great call for female help is for domestic service, and the supply is far from meeting the demand. As summer advances, and the island hotels open and fruit season comes on, it is hard to see where Toledo housekeepers are going to get sufficient assistance.

THE FINDLAY LYNCHING.

Col. Bunker Looked On and Thinks His Think Audibly.

"I was in Findlay during the mob excitement," remarked Col. H. S. Bunker to a Bee this morning, "and I was surprised that the police allowed the perpetration of the outrage. While the prisoner admitted committing the horrible crime and no doubt merited the punishment received, yet there is no reason why the laws of the country should be ignored. They speak of an organized mob. It was a wild, disconnected gang with no leadership or management, and a half-dozen resolute men could have taken the prisoner from them, and routed the whole crowd. I don't believe there was a representative citizen in the party, but it was made up of the toughest element of the town."

THE TOLEDO SUFFRAGE SOCIETY

Pleasantly Spoken About in a Southern Woman's Paper.

That bright young journalist, Miss Kate Cunningham, editor and proprietor of the Woman's Chronicle, published at Little Rock, Ark., in a notice of the twenty-third annual meeting of the Toledo Suffrage association says:

The president, Mrs. Rosa L. Segur, in an admirable report briefly told how "if nothing else had been accomplished, the women of Toledo has clearly proven their ability to work for one object—never swerving from the original idea for which the organization came into existence." She spoke of the instructions given at the last W. N. S. A.—"Organize, Educate." Here in the sunny southland no more potent plans could be followed than the two suggested by the above words.

THE WABASH SHOPS

Are Running To-day, and Work Will Continue Right Along.

The item in the Bee referring to the shut-down of the Wabash shops told the story only partially. True, the shops closed two days ago, but only for the balance of March, for very good reasons:

The Wabash company places a limit on the expenditure for shop maintenance, and the amount being too small for full time all the months and days the General Foreman made a cut of hours, rather than a wholesale discharge. This gave nearly the full force work through the winter. The appropriation ran so close in March as to become completely exhausted two days before the expiration of the month and the General Foreman was obliged to close the shops. April 1 work is resumed, and there may be no more trouble. The Wabash shops give employment to between two hundred and three hundred men and are very valuable to Toledo.

EARLY IN THE SEASON.

Captain Newell, of the Toledo's, Badly Cut with Spikes.

To-day's Enquirer, in speaking of the accident to Newell yesterday, says:

"Jack Newell, the captain and third-baseman of the Toledos, was the victim of a peculiar accident in the eighth inning yesterday. Mullane was on second, and started to steal third. He made it by a head-first slide, but the play was a close one. Catcher Hurley got the ball down to Newell just about the time Tony started to slide. Newell stooped down to put the ball on him. Mullane, who had made a head-long jump, threw his feet up in the air. The heel of his foot struck Newell full in the face. Strange to relate, it did not knock him down. He picked the ball up and threw it to the pitcher. Captain Comiskey, who was on the coaching line, examined Newell, and found that his chin had been laid wide open. There was a cut fully an inch long. Captain Comiskey inquired if there was a physician in the stand. Dr. T. C. Minor, the police commissioner, responded and took several stitches in the wound."

THAT GAS BOND BILL.

The Bee's Course Approved—Talks With Mr. Tracy and Mr. Smith.

The Bee's position on the Griffin gas bill has been universally approved. Pipeliners and anti-pipeliners alike agree that the Bee has taken the proper position.

"The Bee is right," said ex-Gas Trustee T. H. Tracy this morning. "I think the bill could be improved by an amendment limiting the powers of the gas board. It is bad to go to extremes in anything, and I don't think the members of the board of gas trustees themselves favor the bill as it stands. I know I would not want to assume the great responsibility involved."

Mr. Barton Smith, who holds on the matter opposite views from Mr. Tracy, said:

"No one questions that Toledo should pay its indebtedness, but the claims declared invalid by the circuit court include more than $100,000 in excess of what ought in justice to be paid. The pipe was bought without advertisement or bids, and the contracts for laying pipe were made with a view of the fact that the power of the trustees was very doubtful and that the contractors were asked to take their pay in installments running through three years from the proceeds of the plant, and for those reasons demanded more than twice the fair value of the work in cash. Beyond that this bill authorizes the gas trustees to incur unlimited indebtedness in the future, and it seems hardly safe to trust this unusual and extraordinary power in the hands of any municipal board."

A QUIET GAME

Kept the Jury Out Until Five O'clock in the Morning.

The case of Frederick Fitzmier, charged with violating the Sunday liquor law by keeping his saloon open, has been hanging fire in the police court for the past week. Last evening it went to the jury, and staid with it until 5:30 o'clock this morning. The court officials hung around, yawned, took cat naps and said bad things, but no matter the jury couldn't agree. The joke of the whole thing, however, it is said, lies in the fact that the jury found a deck of cards and spent the night with a quiet game. They had a big time, and on coming in this morning rendered a verdict of guilty. Fitzmier was given $25 and costs and 10 days in the workhouse.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES.

The Catholic club met last night, and as usual was highly interesting. Instrumental duets by Misses Ullrich, Fordt and Mr. A. A. Smith were brilliantly given and highly appreciated. A vocal solo by Mrs. Stallcup demanded an encore. The literary feature was an original paper on "Cranks," by Mr. M. J. Hanley. Although many excellent papers have been read before the club, this was unexcelled in its graphic description of newspaper, pedagogical and other cranks; and the humor and fine sarcasm with which they were touched up convinced the audience that Mr. Hanley understood perfectly how to handle his subject. The paper was thoroughly appreciated and a general desire was expressed to hear Mr. Hanley again. Mrs. S. J. Foley presided in an able manner. The club will not meet again until the Thursday evening after Easter.

The Fate of the Republic.

Toledo people will soon have another opportunity to hear the always popular Rev. Anna Shaw. Her services have been secured for Thursday evening, April 14, when she will give her eloquent lecture on "The Fate of the Republic." The lecture is understood to be under the auspices of one of the suffrage societies of the city, and will be without admission fee.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

In re. G. A. R. Members vs. Veterans.

To the Editor: Did it ever occur to the minds of the millions who came upon the stage of life after the surrender at Appomattox, when viewing with justifiable pride the thousands of old soldiers who parade the streets on stated occasions, that not more than one-half were real veterans of the war? It is granted that, according to the duty assigned him, each did his share of service to the country; but to the veteran who enlisted for the first three months and then re-enlisted for the war and served until disabled by wounds, or until the close of the contest, a greater meed of praise and honor is due. Such a veteran was James H. Spain, one of the democratic candidates for justice of the peace at the coming election. Comrade Spain was a member of the One Hundred and Sixty-fourth regiment of New York volunteers, commonly known as "Corcoran's Zouaves," which went out in the spring of 1862 and fought valiantly some of the severest battles of the war; in fact, when the Zouaves were in review the famous Sixty-ninth regiment of New York volunteers ever took pride in saluting with its colors the One Hundred and Sixty-fourth N. Y. V. I., for the reason that it was assigned the most arduous posts and never once surrendered to the enemy. Comrade Spain went in as a private and was repeatedly promoted, until at the battle of Ream's Station, Va., August 25, 1864, when Gen. A. P. Hill, commanding a corps of confederates, was about to capture the federal position with some 250 men of the One Hundred and Sixty-fourth New York, Comrade Spain went to the front and held the ground. The slaughter was so terrible that only 135 men were left to tell the tale, Comrade Spain being reported on the lists at Washington as "killed in battle" with a lieutenant's commission awaiting him. Comrade Spain escaped the clutches of the confederacy and returned to his command, where he remained until the grand review and muster out at Washington in 1865.

In 1871 James H. Spain made his home in Toledo, where he has remained ever since, and in all the relations of life he has proved himself to be a good citizen, kind protector of his family, friendly neighbor, upright business man, and faithful adherence to true and patriotic principles of democracy, that is, "a government of the people, by the people and for the people." Without disparaging the qualifications of any candidate on any ticket, it can safely be said that James H. Spain is by education, as well, if not better qualified, than any other of the gentlemen mentioned for the office of justice of the peace. Mr. Spain is a pension attorney, who has done much to aid comrades in getting their claims through, and will receive the support of many an old soldier. Every soldier can vote for Comrade James H. Spain with a consciousness of having done his whole duty. J. C. N.

The Courier-Journal complains that "Mr. Cleveland stands aloof from the battle." At this stage of it that is just what the people admire in Mr. Cleveland.

The small sum of $197,000 is what Corporal Tanner boasts of having put on the credit side of his account book, attorney fees in pension cases. And still the man grumbles.

"Faith" was described by an Ohio boy as "expectin' something ye ain't goin' to git."—Columbus Post.

That may be the Ohio boy's belief, but as the boy grows up into the politician he grows out of it.

It is noticeable that the senior senator from Ohio does not share in the satisfaction generally expressed over the present status of the Bering sea controversy. According to Senator Sherman the diplomatic triumph is with Lord Salisbury. Respectfully referred to President Harrison.

It is said this session of congress will close early in June. No one will object. There are eight or nine weeks yet for good work, and the time, especially in the democratic house, should be devoted strictly to the business of pushing the fight for tariff reductions and cutting down appropriations.

There is one man in Ohio who expresses himself as "satisfied that the tariff of 1890 will win its own way." His name is William McKinley, his present residence is Columbus, and he is the father of the child he considers so full of promise. In a brief interview he manages to use the word American five times in two sentences, in glorifying the measure. We are a great people, but it must be acknowledged the McKinley section of us has a very narrow policy.

Stewart, of Nevada, has given notice that on Monday he shall move to have his silver bill taken from the calendar in the senate and put upon its passage. Senator Carlisle also serves notice, which is to the effect that he shall call upon Senator Stewart to explain why all the mortgages he (Stewart) holds on lands in Nevada have the paid-in-gold clause in them. The gentleman from Nevada would better think twice before he takes the floor of the senate to tell why he is a 70-cent silver man. In addition to the embarrassment he will feel in answering Senator Carlisle he must know the country still remembers him as one of the three republican senators from the northwest constituting "the bonanza triangle."

The St. Louis Republic discourses sensibly concerning Cleveland or the western man when it says:

Mr. Cleveland is now the first choice of a majority of the democrats of the Mississippi valley, from whom would come the impetus necessary to put a western man at the front. This is true because there have been no booms; because the democrats of the valley have very sensibly resolved not to nominate Mr. Cleveland or anyone else before the convention meets. The nomination will be the work of deliberation, not of unreasoning enthusiasm. Mr. Cleveland is the favorite, but all those in the Mississippi valley who have held up Mr. Cleveland against the attempts to break him down are equally in favor of a western man as an alternative if the situation demands it.

All the same the Republic needn't have given, in the same issue, a three column sketch and two column portrait of Hon. Wm. R. Morrison. If it is to be "the western man," and if the nomination goes to Illinois, that man will be Senator John M. Palmer.

THE COUNTRY'S GREATEST NEED.

With the wealth that pours into and out of the people's treasury in this favored land, the everlasting pity is that more of it is not expended in material improvement. Good roads have more to do with a nation's prosperity than wonderful oratory, or spectacular displays of patriotism. The United States needs good roads more than it needs war ships. At least it needs those first. It takes too much money, time and talent to run its political machines. Nobody has time to think of anything so prosy and commonplace as well-constructed highways, and the preservation of our forests. A person writing on either topic seeks some non-committal title-line, lest his screed be passed by unread.

Hon. Andrew D. White, expresses the idea forcibly when he says, "the present condition of our ordinary lines of internal communication is a disgrace to our civilization." With the wealth, the resources and the enterprise of America, why are we so far behind the civilized countries of the world in the matter of good highways? The question will be answered by some—"What is everybody's business is nobody's business." In the old world countries, that shame us and our pretensions to advancement, in this particular, the building of roads and the management and maintenance of them are under the supervision of the government. "The people" are too busy with individual axes to grind in the political machine shops, to turn their attention to daily national necessities, and the people's representatives are eager to fulfill the requirements of their constituents. Imagine a member of the Ohio legislature, in the midst of the present steaming political stew, springing a bill that concerned the saving of forest lands or the building of public roads.

In the old-world countries the government builds splendid highways whether or not the peasant has a floor in his hovel. We are able, in this country, to build the perfect roadways and to floor our houses also. We pave the principal streets of our cities at great expense. A contractor for street-paving is considered like to a man with shares in a paying silver mine. Then we leave the cross streets in the condition of swamp, or sand heap according to the nature of the soil on which the town is built, and stop short off with our construction, at the city limit. The result is that the mud and soil, dragged in from every direction, keep the paved streets in a distressful condition, unfit alike for the carriage and the pedestrian. We get even by scolding the street commissioner, when we know that to keep the pavements in sight under described conditions, would drain the pocketbooks of the already burdened taxpayer to the last copper.

The strangest thing of all is the apathy of the farmer on this subject. He of all men in the world is the most interested. His prosperity and happiness are at stake. He loses hundreds of dollars by his enforced isolation when the "mud is up to the hub" and by the wear and tear of horseflesh and vehicles. He loses time, money, health, patience, comfort and happiness, all because of the impassable highways between himself and his neighbors and himself and the markets. His wife suffers the same loss, with the prolonged monotony of her house-prison added. Imagine fine, smooth roads, daily mail delivery, and all the benefits that would come through easy and pleasant access to market towns at any and all times of the year.

The bicyclers show more interest in the subject than do the farmers. They have established a bright and attractive magazine devoted to the cause, and are working in downright good earnest for the accomplishment of results. To be sure, the old world has the start of us in years, but we have caught up with them in other instances, and what might we be able to do in this particular if we should go about it with the vim we display in other enterprises?

Counties in some of the southern and western states have taken the matter in hand with splendid results. One man, an enthusiast, in Parke county, Indiana, built a mile of good gravel road at his own expense, on a main traveled thoroughfare. The example was enough; in two years the fever had spread through the county.

How will our muddy, rutty, weedy, littered country roads and our dirty, broken city streets impress the foreigner who will come to visit us and make observations on our country next year? One who knows by reading or by experience aught of the fine thoroughfores of the old world can imagine how they will wonder, where is our boasted enterprise? Think of a Parisian stuck in the black, salvy mud of suburban Chicago.

YOUR X MARK.

Many mistakes were made in Toledo last fall in casting ballots under the new law.

A mistake on the part of the voter cannot be corrected by the judges.

A straight vote is marked with an X opposite the name of the ticket, thus: X | Democratic Ticket.

If the voter desires to vote a scratched ticket he must put the X opposite each candidate for whom he wishes to vote.

The plan is simple, but admits of no variation.

Democrats, be sure you vote right next Monday.

A FISHY STORY.

By way of London comes the very doubtful story that the United States has assumed a protectorate over the Argentine Republic, in South American and European matters.

It is hardly probable that this report is true. It is foreign to the policy of this country to form entangling alliances, and if the present Brigadier Jingo administration attempts such a treaty there will be a home row at the ballot box. We have enough to do with attending to our own affairs without undertaking to settle South American home troubles. And it will be time enough to mix in a foreign muss when European guns are shotted for the western hemisphere.

COMPARE THEM.

The democratic party invites comparison of the city tickets, man for man. The democratic ticket is not only clean from top to bottom, but it was made with the intention of placing candidates before the people who represent good government, economical government, better government. Every man on the democratic ticket ought to be elected.

The same cannot be said for many of the republican candidates. They represent bad government which they would continue. They were nominated by a ring that has too long controlled this city. They couldn't legislate well in the council if they were so disposed, because the ring wouldn't let them do so. In the interest of reform the democratic ticket ought to be successful. Think of these things next Monday.

CAMPBELL IN RHODE ISLAND.

Wednesday night last was the date of the largest and most enthusiastic political mass meeting the beautiful city of Providence has known for many a year. A crowd of notable democrats was present, a big procession of clubs paraded the streets, and enthusiastic cheers woke the echoes to the boundaries of the lively little state. Ex-Governor Campbell was the hero of the occasion. His speech for tariff reform was witty and entertaining, yet logical and convincing. That it was enthusiastically received is shown by the attention accorded it—the New York World and other leading newspapers printing it entire. The democracy of Ohio have reason to be proud of their representative, in whatever position he is placed. To-morrow he will divide honors with Grover Cleveland from the same platform.

Another infamous bill has been introduced in the New York assembly lowering the age of consent for girls from sixteen to ten years. And still men wonder why even the most reluctant women confess that they are being forced to think they have political duties men can not or do not discharge for them.

MENTIONED ON THE STREETS.

That in the Fourth the scalping knife is again at work.

That the Burnett house is to have a billiard and pool parlor.

That Theodore Schmitt will have a walkaway in the Second.

That the republican party will unload the old man-of-the-sea this trip.

That Billy Kirkby's successor will be a German. Flick was right.

That while the best man will win in the Second, he will not be Best.

That Nick Matthews, the ex-alderman of the Fifth, is still a very sick man.

That 800 of the Libbey employes will return from Findlay to Toledo this week.

That Mr. Voit thinks three gas trustees are enough, but he wants to be one of the three.

That King & Tracy have moved into their new quarters in the Produce Exchange.

That real estate is looking way up, and there is good demand for lots and small houses.

That Bower is of all men the most miserable just now. The handwriting is on the wall.

That the Lutherans and Catholics are a unit against the proposed force school book bill.

That Bower does not hitch his horse in front of Jake Hoffman's this week. He ties him a block away.

That Mr. Backus will likely be the next president of the gas trustees. The election takes place this month.

That Monroe street improvements will not be finished for another year. It is over a year since they started.

That Mayor Emmick's visit to Columbus was not altogether in the interest of the bill to issue bonds for an increase of the fire department. The fact that two oil inspectors are to be appointed may have had something to do with the trip.

A TERRIBLE TALE.

Men and Women in Russia Dropping Dead from Starvation.

Boston, April 1.—Herman Friedland, a newsdealer of Roxbury, has just received a letter from his father, who lives in the town of Atigola, upon the Russian frontier, which tells a horrible tale of suffering among the Russian people. The letter says that in spite of food sent from America, people are dropping dead in the streets from starvation.

The food, as it is distributed through the infected country, is seized by rabid officials and shared among them. Impervious to human suffering, they see men and women dying in all the anguish of starvation, and with a curse visit the supply station and take all the food to their homes, leaving never a crust for their starving people. The famished crowds are desperate, and many are insane with hunger. It is only the fear of prison, or a worse fate, bred in a Russian from his birth, that prevents rebellion. He says: "There is no hope for relief. The power exercised by Russian officials is absolute. There is nothing for the people to do but starve unless help shall come from outside and that speedily."

MAY UNDO THEIR WORK.

Several of the Chicago Boodle Indictments Will Probably Be Withdrawn.

Chicago, April 1.—It is possible that with one or two exceptions the entire work accomplished by the grand jury with regard to the boodlers will be undone before the final adjournment on Saturday.

The jurors have discovered that in the majority of cases in which they have returned true bills there is not enough evidence to convict, and several "no bills" will be returned before the term's work is complete.

This is stated on the authority of Gen. Lieb, foreman of the grand jury. The first step in this line was taken when the jury spent nearly an hour in the reconsideration of the indictment against Alderman Dan O'Brien. A vote was postponed until to-morrow, however, and in the meantime the prosecution has been notified to present further evidence in this case, if it can be produced.

HE FACED DEATH.

Unknown Man Killed at Upper Sandusky.

Upper Sandusky, April 1.—(Special)—An unknown man was struck by a passenger train on the Fort Wayne road west of here about a mile, last night, and instantly killed.

The engineer said he walked directly toward the train, and declares it a case of willful self-destruction.

Not a letter, paper, or anything was found on his clothes, and nobody can identify him.

He is a stout built man, good looking, has brown hair and a red beard, and is aged about 35 years.

SUBJECT TO REVISION.

Ottawa, Ont., April 1.—Claims aggregating over $500,000 filed by the sealing fleet for loss owing to exclusion from Bering sea last year are subject to revision, as it is stated that many of them are inflated and fictitious. A member of the cabinet said yesterday that the instructions sent to the collector of customs in British Columbia to refuse clearances to Bering sea were sent out ten days ago, which gives confirmation to the statement that Lord Salisbury had determined upon agreeing to the modus vivendi at that time.

CURRENT COMMENT.

One of the most difficult things in the world is to lasso the presidency of these United States.—Buffalo Courier.

The republicans may as well begin to figure now on how they can elect a president without New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana and Rhode Island.—New York World.

Gentle reader, free silver doesn't mean that they are going to give it to you. Oh, no! It means that you are free to work for it as aforetimes.—Waynesboro Citizen.

The dynamitards in Paris are showing an amount of energy and a careful attention to business which would easily put them in the position of dynamitees if they turned their attention to productive work. And more than that, they would have quite as much excitement if the crusade is to be continued along its present lines.—Chicago Mail.

One of the problems to be elucidated by the professor of journalism at the Chicago university will be how it is that four papers can each run a special train over one line of track at exactly the same moment and yet employ only one engine and one car.—Chicago Times.

The democratic party has nothing to fear in Georgia, absolutely nothing, if its principles are proclaimed in the right manner, and its arguments launched against the jack o' lantern promises of the third party.—Athens (Ga.) Banner.

Andrew Carnegie says he is worth $30,000,000 to $35,000,000 and proposes to spend it all before he dies in works of charity. His largest contributions to "charitable" purposes heretofore have gone to keep alive the decrepit "grand old party" elephant.—Savannah News.

Paris has the finest spy system in the world, yet Parisian detectives cannot keep dynamite out of the houses of police officials. With a little more good government Paris would have need of fewer spies.—St. Louis Republic.

It seems that Gen. Russell A. Alger has been acquitted of the charge of cowardice which has been preferred against him. This gives him a good advertisement for his presidential boom, and he may yet prove a formidable opponent of Benjamin Harrison.—Richmond Times.

After spirited bidding the Rhode Island republican nomination for governor was knocked down to D. Russell Brown for $15,000. The party of great moral ideas is suffering from fatty degeneration.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The sugar trust should not forget to send Mr. McKinley a hogshead of their best article. He is entitled to that small share of their millions which he has enabled it to steal from the people.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

In his last annual report Commissioner Porter said it would cost $1,000,000 to complete the census reports. Now, after eight months, a committee finds that it will cost $2,000,000. At this rate of geometrical progression the census will bankrupt the government long before its completion. But an empty treasury will call for more revenue, and the necessity for more revenue will call for more tariff, so the protected barons, in whose interest Porter was appointed, will have no cause for complaint.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

VINCENT J. EMMICK

Appointed State Oil Inspector by Gov. McKinley.

Emmick Names William H. Tucker as His Successor—He Also Names a Number of Deputies.

Vincent J. Emmick has secured the summit of his ambition. He has been appointed state oil inspector by Gov. McKinley.

About 11:15 last evening Mr. Emmick received the following dispatch from Gov. McKinley:

"Vincent J. Emmick, Toledo, O.:

"Have to-day appointed you state oil inspector. If you accept, wire.

"WM. McKINLEY, JR."

Mr. Emmick had retired when he received the precious and long-looked-for dispatch. He promptly donned his clothing and hied him to the telegraph office, and sent the following reply:

"Gov. McKinley, Columbus:

"Your favor received. Will leave on first train for Columbus. Thanks.

"VINCENT J. EMMICK."

The news spread and gave general satisfaction, and Mr. Emmick was everywhere congratulated.

He had just sent the answer to Gov. McKinley, and was on his way to tell Jake Hoffman the good news when he was met by a Bee.

"Read that," he cried exultantly, handing the dispatch to the reporter. "Now let them say that Emmick is no good. Am I in it? Well, I should smile. Let's go around to Jake's."

Mr. Hoffman was in bed, but he was soon routed out.

He came in with his face beaming and shook the mayor's hand heartily.

"Vincey, ole boy," he said, "what did I tell you?"

"What puzzles me now," said the mayor, "is who shall I appoint as my successor?"

"What's the matter with Reno?"

"Oh, he won't do. That Cleveland matter would hurt too much."

"That's so. Well, there's Bower. He's going to be defeated for re-election, and—"

"But he can't write."

"That's so. What's the matter with Doville? He ain't got any show of being elected and he's entitled to something."

"Oh, he won't do. He's in the sand ring, and besides he has no use for me."

"That's so. Coalwell—"

"Oh, Coalwell makes me tired. He's going around stabbing himself in the leg to show that it's wooden, and that he's an old soldier. He makes me very weary, and I haven't had as much trouble over anything since the street car strike. I'm sure I don't know what to do."

It was finally decided to have another drink and then take up the subject again.

The beer seemed to have an inspiring effect, for Vince had an idea.

"What's the matter with me appointing Tucker? Tucker is after it. Now that I'm out of the way, he'll be the republican nominee for mayor next spring. He won't be in it, and if I don't appoint him now he'll never be mayor."

"That's so. Then appoint Tucker. He's not just our people, you know, but let 'er go."

"It's a go. I'll notify him to-morrow."

There was another drink, and then the discussion was resumed.

"Of course this is all confidential," he said to the Bee. "You mustn't say anything about the talk, though you can announce that I have been appointed oil inspector."

"Now, who shall you appoint as your deputy?" asked Jake, resuming business.

Vincent J. scratched his head ruefully.

"More promises," laughed Jake.

"Promises? Well, I should say so. Look here," producing the famous little red book. "Look at that string of them. There's Voit—no, Voit is off the list, thank God. I got rid of him—but there's Otto and Fellows, and—oh, but hang them all. I don't owe them anything. Ante-election promises don't go. Why, even the Pulverizer says so," and all joined in a scornful laugh at this sally.

"I don't like Tucker," Jake said, doubtfully. "I don't like him. If appointed mayor he will take your place on the police board, and he won't do for what we want him for. We must have O'Dwyer's scalp. See?"

"Yes. Well, I can make that a condition of his appointment. He'll do anything to be mayor."

There was another drink, and another. Suddenly there was a crash. The front door flew open and Flickinger, his white hair dishevelled, and his clothing travel-stained, stood before them.

"I've just come from Columbus," he exclaimed between breaths, "and John Kumler is there—"

"Kumler, ye gods!" and the mayor gritted his teeth fiercely.

"Yes, and he has got out an injunction restraining Gov. McKinley from appointing you oil inspector."

The mayor gasped convulsively, turned over and—awoke. On his flushed and wrathful face fell the first rays of the dawn which ushered in April Fool's Day.

THE SPRING CAMPAIGN.

Notes Here and There About Some of the Candidates.

Col. John H. Puck has been a resident of Toledo for years, engaged in manufacturing enterprises, and has kept step with the advancement of his home. He is now before the people as a candidate for police commissioner, and all who know him are sufficiently cognizant of the fact that he would make one of the best officials the city has had. Vote for Puck.

Mr. Rooney, candidate for justice of the peace, is a gentleman who would honor the office. As an evidence of his popularity, it may be mentioned that at the election for delegate by the printers' union the other day he was chosen by a handsome vote. Vote for Rooney.

Councilman Walker is making a gallant fight for re-election in the Eighth ward. He has been a faithful servant of the people, and with the experience gained in the past will make a better representative in the future. Vote for Walker.

John Daly is a better man than Morganthaler to represent the Fourth ward. Great efforts are being put forth to elect the latter, but democrats should be true to their ticket and elect its ward nominees.

George B. Hull is a man of standing in this community, and as a trustee of the water works would carry to the office ripe judgment, coupled with good common sense. Vote for Hull.

With Shafer and Best dividing the republican vote in the Second, there is scarcely a doubt of Theodore Schmitt's election to the council. But democrats should get out to vote to avoid surprise.

Sam Kohn, a graduate of the Toledo High school, is a candidate for the school board in the Second ward. A better selection could hardly be suggested. Vote for Kohn.

Dr. Hathaway will be an efficient member of the school board from the Sixth ward in the event of election, which is almost assured. Vote for Hathaway.

Alderman Graham has made an excellent member for the past two years, and he will be re-elected, notwithstanding the virulent attacks made upon him.

Sanford Cook deserves the support of the voters of East Toledo. As a councilman he will be watchful of the Sixth's interest. Vote for Cook.

George Leibius is a born hustler, and Coalwell will find he is not dealing with a spring chicken. Coalwell is doomed to defeat. Vote for Leibius.

Vote for John Cunz as assessor in the Seventh ward. He is a man of good intelligence, and would be a careful and discriminating officer.

Louis Steuer will not employ 300 men in one week, as Bower is now doing. He will distribute the work through the year. Vote for Steuer.

Schulty and Mathias will represent the First ward in the next city council. They will make a splendid team.

E. D. Scrafford, nominee for assessor in the First ward, could not be improved upon. Vote for Scrafford.

The Fifth ward never had a better councilman than Frank Coleman. Vote to return him.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

They Have Been Sold to the French.

Great Excitement in London Over the Revelations in the Holden Case.

London, April 1.—The British war office is greatly agitated by the revelations in the case of Edward Holden, formerly of the Royal Engineers, who was arrested while endeavoring to ascertain facts relative to the defenses at Gibraltar.

It is said that Holden had an agreement with the French war office, to procure for them as far as possible the plans of all fortifications in the Mediterranean, and perhaps in adjoining waters.

How far he had progressed in his work of treachery and espionage is not known, except that no doubt is entertained that he has sold a plan of the Malta and Gozo defenses to France.

For this reason it has been determined to make important changes in the plans at Malta.

THE POLITICAL EFFECT.

Wenneker To Be Sacrificed in Order to Make Capital.

St. Louis, April 1.—A Washington special to the Globe-Democrat this morning says: Internal Revenue Collector Charles F. Wenneker, of St. Louis, has been investigated and the recommendation for his removal is now in the hands of the president.

The papers in the case are voluminous. Commissioner Mason, of the internal revenue bureau, recommends dismissal, and Secretary Foster approves the recommendation.

The offense of Mr. Wenneker and his subordinates is levying assessments upon government employes for political purposes. The evidence is considered conclusive.

A man who has suffered for years with a diseased appetite for whisky knows when he is cured, and all the doctors in the universe cannot impeach his testimony

RHEUMATISM and NEURALGIA CURED.

If suffering, send this slip from the Bee, with a 2-cent stamp, to W. H. Hill & Co., Detroit, Mich. We will send a bottle of medicine free.

President Eliot needs no overhauling for what he said in Salt Lake City. Aside from the parasite, polygamy, the Mormon religion makes good Christians. Polygamy is not a tenet of the creed; it is a later poisonous growth. Until the gentiles flocked into the New Zion it is an historic truth that such a thing as a lock on a door was unknown. A religion that teaches effectually such honesty as that implies, need not be condemned by anybody.

PROCLAMATION.

HIS DEVOTIONS.

The organ peals, the choir is singing;
I wonder if she knows I'm here!
Her thoughts, no doubt, are upward winging,
While mine sink, clogged with doubt and fear.

'Tis she, of course; there's no mistaking
Her crowded, glossy braids of brown,
And that's the bonnet she was making—
I sat and watched her bead the crown.

How deft her fingers are—how busy!
Ah! happy man within whose home—
But stay! such thoughts, they make me dizzy,
And have no place beneath this dome.

Far better should I ponder grimly
My faults committed, duties missed.
How neat her glove is, and how trimly
It buttons round her slender wrist!

Ah! vain and poor is earthly pleasure;
No wonder that our sad hearts yearn
To some more high and lasting treasure—
They're sitting down. Perhaps she'll turn.

Thank heaven, she sees me! She is flinging
A sweet, reproachful glance my way—
Yes, dear, indeed I've been singing,
And now, my saint, I mean to pray!

No chemist has ever produced brighter colors than are secured by the Maine Indian basket makers. For the greater part of the material ash logs are taken, though maple is cut for rims and handles. In the salt marshes sweet grass is found, which when dry gives out a fragrant odor. Alder is steeped for pale red, white birch bark for bright red, cedar boughs for green, sumach for yellow; black comes from white maple bark. A light solution of maple, however, shows purple instead of black. Lazy Indians buy logwood for black, redwood for red and fustic for yellow.

Prof. Totten's notoriety as a "prophet" is a source of great mortification to his fellow teachers in Yales university. They cannot prevent the publication of his nonsense; nor can they prohibit the use of his academic title and connection to give it weight, since he was detailed from the United States army, on the application of the university, to act as professor of military science and tactics. It should be said, by the way, that his efficiency as an instructor (the intrusion of prophecy into his lectures being strictly prohibited) is quite equal to his absurdity as a prophet, and his personal characteristics are altogether lovely.

WHO GOT THE MONUMENT.

"Twenty-one in the red; the lucky red. Fifteen in the black; everybody wins."

It was in Cheyenne, in 1867. The railway had just reached the town and made it the western terminus for several months.

Graders, miners, soldiers, bull-whackers, mule-skinners, Indians, Chinamen, Mexicans and adventurers from every state in the nation and almost every country in the world formed the greater part of the population.

Money was plentiful and everybody gambled.

I was generally a winner, and before long my skillful playing attracted the attention of the proprietor of the Wave, and I was offered the position of dealer at one of the big faro banks at a good salary, and accepted it.

I had a narrow escape one night when Big Bill Rogers, the caller at the roulette wheel, was shot dead by a miner who accused him of stealing his chips.

A bullet fired in the melee whizzed so close to my head that I felt shaky and nerveless for several hours after the fight was over.

Rogers was an unpopular man about the Wave, and when we found among his effects some letters giving the names of his people back east it was hard to find any one who would take the trouble to inform them of his death. I finally did it, omitting, however, the details of the event.

Big Bill's successor was Old Poverty. He was a watery-eyed, hollow-cheeked, dilapidated wreck who had haunted the Wave for several weeks.

Despite his calling, Old Poverty had an honest look, and he was a favorite with the rough crowd of cowboys, graders and miners that surged around the roulette table, and fights in that corner of the house became less frequent.

Where Old Poverty came from; what his name was; why, with such an honest square look in his face, he was a gambler no one knew or cared, but certain it was that the first genuine feeling of sorrow that entered the Wave was the evening that Old Poverty failed to show up for his night trick at the wheel, and later on it was learned that a hemorrhage had sapped his life-blood and he was dead.

He was the first man connected with the establishment who had died a natural death, and he was given a fine funeral.

A minister rode at the head of the procession, and all the employes of the Wave, the dance-girls, bartenders, croupiers, callers, short-card men, and even the colored porter, followed the hearse in hacks.

In respect to his memory all the games were stopped during the time of the funeral and for two hours after.

It was the first time since the Wave had opened its doors day or night, that the whirr of the ivory ball around the roulette wheel, the click of chips in the restless fingers of the faro players, the slap of cards on the hardwood tables, and the monotonous tones of the man at the wheel, calling "Fifteen in the red," or "Twenty in the black," had been hushed for even an hour.

The bar, however, was opened up as soon as the mourners returned from the funeral, and afforded means, which were not neglected, of gradually but surely removing the depression the funeral had caused.

In front of the bar a number of employes of the house were drinking industriously to Old Poverty's memory, when a boy brought me a letter from the postoffice.

It was from Big Bill Rogers' folks, and inclosed a draft for $250, with directions to expend it in putting a monument over his grave. I read the letter aloud to the boys, and they were all astonished at the contents. The death of Big Bill had been almost forgotten, but this letter recalled all the circumstances, and naturally brought out comparisons between him and Old Poverty.

"It's pretty tough, gentlemen," said Sol Harris, a faro dealer, "that this here every Big Bill Rogers that no one had any use for, is going to get a regular marble-topped monument, and Old Poverty, that we all barked on, gets nothing."

Everybody agreed that this state of affairs was tough, but beyond setting them up again for the crowd, no one advanced any remedy until Jack Ryan, who called the wheel on the afternoon trick, said:

"Gentlemen, I move that when we buy this here monument for Big Bill we put it over Old Poverty, and let Bill go to h—"

A more popular proposition could not have been suggested, and there was not a dissenting voice against it.

Its adoption was a finishing tribute to Old Poverty's virtues, and all hands returned to the fascinations of poker, faro or roulette, with a load of care apparently lifted.

In about two months the monument came from Omaha. It was placed over Old Poverty's grave, and as it was the first marble tombstone put up in the cemetery, it was pointed out with pride by the fraternity, until with the growth of the town more pretentious monuments eclipsed it.

Now it is stained and discolored by time and weather. The inscription can hardly be read, and when deciphered by those unfamiliar with its history it seems a strange epitaph, for it is as follows:

"In memory of Old Poverty. Died December 4, 1867. Erected by Wm. Rogers."

Senator Stanford's wife has been such a friend to the poor and oppressed that a colored Baptist society in Washington has changed its name from the "Mount Bethel" to the "Jane L. Stanford" Baptist church in her honor.

King Christian, of Denmark, who is about to go on an extended tour from home, is one of the most democratic of rulers. He goes about the streets of Copenhagen in a plug hat, and isn't even saluted by the people he meets.

Denmark has a dramatist named Holberg whose comedies are regarded by his countrymen as equal to those of Moliere. Some of his plays have been translated into German, and it is proposed to do a number of them into English.

One of the peculiarities of the late Edward Pierrepont was his curious vanity about his name. He was originally Munson E. Pierpont, and exchanged his name for the one under which he was known during the latter part of his life.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt has to absent himself from the public on account of the trouble he has with his eyes, one of which is said to be already useless, while the nerve of the other, it is feared, is seriously affected. He has represented the same constituency (city of Oxford) for about twenty-five years.

HEALTHY. HAPPY. WHY?

Is he a bright child? Does he look healthy and happy? He is bright, and he is both healthy and happy. He is the little son of Mrs. Henry T. Bowers, wife of the well-known contractor and builder, who resides in Dorchester avenue, South Boston. Mrs. Bowers has had quite an experience with her children, which experience we give in her own words, as follows:

"I have a little boy two and one-half years of age, the perfect picture of rugged health, and also a little girl of four. I attribute their good health and good temper to the use of Dr. Hand's Remedies.

I have used, as occasion required, the entire line, and have had very marked results from the Colic Cure, Cough and Croup Medicine, and the Pleasant Physic. I have never had any but good result from the use of any of them."

No mother would make a statement like the above unless she knew wholly whereof she affirmed.

A JUDGE GIVING TESTIMONY

An Important Case Summed Up As Follows.

Chronic Catarrh—Twenty Years—Settled on Lungs—Could Get No Relief—Permanent Cure at Last.

New Vienna, Clinton Co., O.
Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co.—Gents: I take pleasure in testifying to your medicines. I have used about one bottle and a half, and can say I am a new man. Have had the catarrh about twenty years. Before I knew what it was it had settled on my lungs and breast, and can now say I am well. Was in the army, could get no medicine that would relieve me. Yours truly.
W. D. WILLIAMS,
Probate Judge of Clinton County.

While it is a fact that Pe-ru-na can be relied on to cure chronic catarrh in all stages and varieties, yet it is not often that it will so quickly cure a case of long standing as the above. Hence it is that so many patients fail in finding a cure because of their unwillingness to continue treatment long enough. Many people who have had chronic catarrh for five, ten, and even fifteen years, will follow treatment for a few weeks, and then, because they are not cured, give up in despair and try something else. These patients never follow any one treatment long enough to test its merits, and consequently never find a cure. It is a well-known law of disease that the longer it has run the more tenaciously it becomes fastened to its victim.

The difficulty with which catarrh is cured has led to the invention of a host of remedies which produce temporary relief only. The unthinking masses expect to find some remedy which will cure them in a few days, and to take advantage of this false hope many compounds which have instant but transient effect has been devised. The people try these catarrh cures one after another, but disappointment is the invariable result, until very many sincerely believe that no cure is possible.

Catarrh is a Systematic Disease, and therefore requires persistent internal treatment, sometimes for many months, before a permanent cure is effected. The mucous lining of the cavities of the head, throat, lungs, etc., are made up of a network of minute blood vessels called capillaries. The capillaries are very small elastic tubes, which, in all cases of chronic catarrh, are congested or bulged out with blood so long that the elasticity of the tubes are entirely destroyed. The nerves which supply these capillaries with vitality are called the "vasa-motor" nerves. Any medicine to reach the real difficulty and exert the slightest curative action in any case of catarrh must operate directly on the vasa-motor system of nerves. As soon as these nerves become strengthened and stimulated by the action of a proper remedy they restore to the capillary vessels of the various mucous membranes of the body their normal elasticity. Then, and only then, will the catarrh be permanently cured. Thus it will be seen that catarrh is not a blood disease, as many suppose, but rather a disease of the mucous blood vessels. This explains why it is that so many excellent blood medicines utterly fail to cure catarrh.

Colds, winter coughs, bronchitis, sore throat and pleurisy are all catarrhal affections, and consequently are quickly curable by Pe-ru-na. Each bottle of Pe-ru-na is accompanied by full directions for use, and is kept by most druggists. Get your druggist to order it for you if he does not already keep it.

A pamphlet on the cause and cure of all catarrhal diseases and consumption sent free to any address by The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Co., Columbus, O.

WAIT FOR THE BIG SHOW.

A manager who expends thousands of dollars in order that nothing will be neglected that might add to the enjoyment of his patrons certainly deserves success, and, as a rule, he generally gets it, if the public would only learn to discriminate between responsible companies and those who possess no stability.

There are plenty of good shows, but, unfortunately, there are hundreds which are utterly devoid of merit. Now, any one can tell at a glance if they see a magnificent new store with massive plate glass windows, that it necessarily calls for a great outlay of money to erect it, and a stock in such a store is generally of the finest. The same line of reasoning to theatrical companies; for instance: when you see a show billed in the lavish and expensive manner that characterizes "She Couldn't Marry Three" company you can rest assured that there is money and push back of it. The beautiful, artistic pictorial lithographic work, is the finest and costliest on the road. No lithographing firm would attempt that kind of work without having $10,000 down to insure them from loss. This is only one of the many items of a great show, and the same good taste which provides this beautiful printing will neglect no other department of the show. So there is not a doubt that the production of "She Couldn't Marry Three" is the biggest show of the season.

TORTURING THE INMATES

Cruel Punishment in a Jersey "Home."

The Inmates Are Shocked Into Submission.

The Only Difference Between the Punishment and Electrocution Is That the Victims Are Not Killed.

New York, April 1.—This is an inventive age. No doubt, if the ghost of that great disciplinarian, Mr. Creakle, of Salem House, is mundane enough in its disembodied state to grieve at all, it sheds tears over the cruel fate that caused it to occupy a tenement of clay in a generation to which the wonders of electricity were comparatively unknown. The famous cane with which he used to rap David Copperfield for saying nothing and Tommy Traddles for saying too much was effective enough in its way, but compared with "an electrode for the neck," or "an electric cat-o'-nine tails" it was not in sight.

The Newark City home, situated at Verona, in the state of New Jersey, is an institution where incorrigible boys and girls are placed to be reformed. The institution has its own laws, its own way of doing business and its own manner of punishing the boys and girls who will not behave themselves. It is a very simple way. The boy or girl misbehaves and is led into a dark chamber. Then an electric punishment takes place which differs from the electrocutions at Sing Sing prison in New York in that the victim is not killed, but merely shocked into behaving himself or herself.

An electrode is put behind the ear at the base of the skull, another electrode is placed at some other part of the body; a current of electricity is then turned on and the victim howls with all his might until the punishment is over.

This method of punishment has been in vogue at the home for some time, so that the state of New York cannot claim the honor of having introduced electricity as a method of punishment.

The Newark City home is buried in the Orange mountains, a few miles outside of the town of Verona. There are about 300 inmates, of which number about one-third are girls. The "home" is intended for boys and girls between the ages of 7 and 21. It is a city institution, and it is supposed to be governed by the laws of the state of New Jersey. C. M. Harrison is the superintendent.

The methods which Mr. Harrison employs to punish the worst of his prisoners are, to say the least, interesting. The idea originated in the mind of the village doctor, a man of the name of Whitestone. He has been the physician at the home for several years and was at one time previous to his present position a physician in the state penitentiary, under Superintendent Spears. The names Whitestone and Spears are worthy of note. They recall Murdstone and Squeers of Dickens' imaginative creation.

The superintendent thought the doctor's idea of electric punishment a good one. There were at that time quite a number of vicious boys in the "Home." They did not fear the whip nor did starvation on bread and water have any fears for them. To tell the truth they were incorrigible. The first time one of the boys drew a knife on one of his fellows and tried to cut him, after Dr. Whitestone had made his new mode of punishment, the superintendent tried the experiment on the unfortunate.

He took the boy into a little room in the basement floor. The room was darkened. The only furniture it contained was a small round table in the center. Besides the superintendent, the only person allowed in the room was the doctor. He carried under his arm a little square box. The boy looked around inquiringly, and not seeing a whip or club began to get frightened. He was ordered to remove his coat and vest. He was used to that and obeyed in silence. Then he was told to roll up both his sleeves. He did so, wondering what was about to happen. Then the doctor put the little box on the table and opened it. The doctor fumbled around and produced four electrodes, at the end of wires covered with silk, which led from the box. Only two of them were used. The battery was supplied with the hand pieces of ordinary galvanic batteries, but these were not needed. They were too simple. The doctor connected the instruments of punishment with the battery. Then he poured a little water on the sponge at the head of the first electrode. This he handed to the superintendent. Mr. Harrison applied it at the base of the boy's skull. The boy by this time was nearly dead with fright and trembled like a leaf, so that they had to make him sit down in a chair. They made him fold his bared arms over his chest. The superintendent held one of the electrodes in its place at the base of the boy's skull while the doctor turned the switch and threw the full force of the battery into the boy's body. There was a buzzing noise. The doctor picked up the other little whip-like instrument which constituted the other pole of the battery, touched the boy's flesh suddenly at intervals, making him jump about two feet from the chair and howl with pain every time the doctor touched him with it. The superintendent held his electrode in place and the doctor applied the brush or whip in half a hundred places on the boy's arms and face and neck—wherever, in fact, the bare flesh presented itself. Every time the current was closed the boy howled, probably thinking that his death was a matter of a very few seconds. When they had scared him sufficiently they turned the current off and set him free, in the righteous belief that they had cured him.

When Horace Greeley became a farmer, road improvement was one of his hobbies. He used to tell a story about the farmer who started to market with a drove of hogs. It was quite a distance, and the delays and obstacles were so many and so expensive he sold his porkers at a loss, midway, and returned home. "What were the profits of your pork enterprise?" his neighbors asked. After a moment's study, he replied, "I had the company of the hogs."

Deaf from Catarrh

I WAS THE VICTIM OF THE WORST CASE OF CATARRH that I ever heard of. I was entirely deaf in one ear, and all the inside of my nose, including part of the bone sloughed off. No sort of treatment benefited me, and physicians said "I would never be any better." As a last resort I took Swift's Specific, and it entirely cured me and restored my hearing. I have been well for years, with no sign of return of the disease.—Mrs. JOSEPHINE POLHILL, Due West, S. C.

SPORTING GOSSIP.

Toledo Loses a Game to the Reds of Cincinnati.

The Toledo club played the first game of the season yesterday with the Cincinnatis and lost by a score of 8 to 3. Exhibition games give little satisfaction as no club plays hard ball or tries very hard to win. In fact it would be folly to do so.

Exhibition games are merely to get the boys in condition, and as it will be over a month before they appear in this city, the opening games can be counted on as being very interesting. The score in yesterday's game is as follows:

		R.	H.	E.
Cincinnati	0 0 1 0 3 2 1 0 1 —	8	12	2
Toledo	0 0 0 0 2 1 0 0 0 —	3	5	5

Batteries—Mullane and Harrington, Pears and Hurly. Umpire—Clark. Attendance—200.

New York, April 1.—The turf world late last night was startled with the intelligence, which was subsequently confirmed, that Monmouth park had changed hands.

Mr. Peabody Wetmore, the estate of D. D. Withers, the estate of W. L. Scott, the countess D'Agrega (formerly Mrs. George Lorillard), and Mr. A. J. Cassatt, have sold their stock to a syndicate represented by A. F. Walcott and James R. Keene. The syndicate is backed by one of the most influential of New Jersey politicians.

Sent to an Asylum.

Marion V. Dudley, the Poetess, Complains

That She Was Sent to a Madhouse in Order That People Could Secure Her Property.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 1.—For some time it has been quietly talked among the friends of Marion V. Dudley, the poetess, that she was consigned to an insane asylum without proper examination.

Yesterday the state board of control was in the city and it was said that the members came for the purpose of investigating complaints made by Mrs. Dudley herself, relative to her confinement in a madhouse.

She claims perfect ability to care for herself and alleges that she was committed with the object of giving to other people the control of her property, which is said to be valued at about $20,000.

The complaint as to the mental condition of Mrs. Dudley was made by her aged husband last January, and after a private examination by physicians she was committed to a private asylum without a jury trial and without opportunity to be heard in her own defense.

Garfield Tea is composed wholly of harmless herbs, hence its effects can never be injurious. Why, then, take nauseous pills, oils or cathartics that constipate?

No Money Required of Responsible Parties to Commence Treatment
DOCTORS FRANCE AND OTTMAN,
Formerly of New York, now the Celebrated Examining Physicians of THE FRANCE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE, Columbus, Ohio, by request of many friends and patients, have decided to visit Toledo

Dr. France, Wednesday, April 13.
Dr. Ottman, Saturday, April 23.

Consultation and Examination Free and Strictly Confidential in the Private Parlor of the Burnett House from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m., one day only.

The doctors describe the different diseases better than the sick can themselves. It is a wonderful gift for any one to possess. Their diagnostic powers have created wonders throughout the country.

The France Medical and Surgical Institute in the State Incorporated with a Institute to of Columbus, Ohio, is the only Medical Capital of $300,000.00.

FRANCE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE,
38 & 40 W. Gay St., one block N. of State House, Columbus, O. Incorporated, 1886. Capital, $300,000.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, of New York, the well known and successful Specialists in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, on account of their large practice in Ohio, have established the FRANCE MEDICAL INSTITUTE, where all forms of Chronic, Nervous and Private Diseases will be successfully treated on the most Scientific principles. They are ably assisted by a full corps of eminent Physicians and Surgeons, each one being a well known specialist in his profession

CANCER positively cured without pain or use of the knife, by a new method.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—DR. FRANCE, after years of experience, has discovered the greatest cure known for all diseases peculiar to the sex. Female diseases positively cured by the new remedy, OLIVE BLOSSOM. The cure is effected by home treatment. Entirely harmless and easily applied. Consultation Free and Strictly Confidential. Correspondence promptly answered.

YOUNG MEN—Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, may call with confidence.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, after years of experience, have discovered the greatest cure known for weakness in the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, languor, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight, or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose, or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach, or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the solitary vice of youth—and secret practices, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible. Take one candid thought before it is too late. A week or month may place your case beyond the reach of hope. Our method of treatment will speedily and permanently cure the most obstinate cases, and absolutely restore perfect manhood.

TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many from the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight burning or smarting sensation, weakening the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits, a ropy sediment will be found, or the color will be a thin or milkish hue. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—We have a special department, thoroughly organized, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of women. Every case consulting our specialists, whether by letter or in person, is given the most careful and considerate attention. Important cases, and we get few which have not baffled the skill of all the home physicians) have the benefit of a full council of skilled specialists. In treatment of diseases peculiar to females, our success has been marked, over two-thirds of our patients being ladies, old, young, married, single, in our practice. Our method is entirely free from objectionable features of the general practitioner, namely, "Local treatment." We seldom find it necessary. We prepare remedies, constitutional and local, as the case demands, and instruct ladies how to treat themselves.

MARRIAGE.—Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness, loss of procreative powers, impotency, or any other disqualification, speedily restored.

PRIVATE DISEASES.—Blood Poison, Venereal Taint, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Emissions, Loss of Sexual Power, Weakness of Sexual Organs, Want of Desire in Male or Female, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual habits of mature years, or any cause that debilitates the sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Absolute cures guaranteed. Medicines sent free from observation to all parts of the United States.

EPILEPSY, OR FITS—Positively cured by a new and never-failing method. Testimonials furnished.

FREE EXAMINATION OF THE URINE.—Each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring from 2 to 4 ounces of urine (that passed first in the morning preferred), which will receive a careful chemical and microscopical examination, and if requested a written analysis will be given.

Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders, who keep trifling with them month after month, giving poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately. Delays are dangerous.

WONDERFUL CURES Perfected in old cases which have been neglected or unskillfully treated. No experiments or failures. Parties treated by mail or express, but where possible, personal consultation is preferred. Curable cases guaranteed. No risks incurred.

Cases and correspondence confidential. Treatment sent C. O. D. to any part of U. S. List of 130 questions free. Address, with postage, DR. FRANCE, Nos. 38 and 40 W. Gay St., Columbus, O.

MANHOOD RESTORED! "Nerve Seeds," the wonderful remedy sold with a written guarantee to cure all nervous diseases, such as Weak Memory, Loss of Brain Power, Headache, Wakefulness, Lost Manhood, Nightly Emissions, Nervousness, Lassitude, all drains and loss of power of the Generative Organs in either sex caused by over exertion, youthful errors, or excessive use of tobacco, opium or stimulants which often lead to infirmity, Consumption and Insanity. Put up convenient to carry in vest pocket. $1 per package by mail; 6 for $5. With every $5 order we give a written guarantee to cure or refund the money. Circular free. The General Appropriation Bill Reported.

Over Two and a Quarter Million Dollars.

The Ninety-Nine Year Lease to Street Railroads Did Not Find Easy Sailing in the Senate,

Columbus, April 1.—(Special)—At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon senate took up the Spencer 99-year street railway franchise bill, and it was warmly discussed for nearly two hours.

Senators McMaken and Parker ably pleaded for the adoption of the minority report, which placed restrictions around a measure of this magnitude.

After they had made speeches in favor of the adoption of the minority report Senator McConica ridded the whole measure from beginning to end, in fact he said if the bill was passed it would tie the hands of three generations so that city councils could not legislate for the people, and all railroad companies could charge what they pleased as fares.

Senator Green, the colored member from Cleveland, was opposed to the bill on principle, but is under obligations to the corporations, who sent him a telegram to support it under all circumstances, although he alleged it would sadly hurt the laboring classes of his own city.

No democrat supported it by his vote, but Senators Beebe and Gear did vote for the majority report, which was adopted by a vote, yeas 16, nays 7, as follows:

Yeas—Abbott, Bain, Beebe, Carpenter (Meigs), Clingman, Fox, Gear, Green, Iden, Lampson, Nichols, Ohl, Phillips, Rawlings, Spencer and Von Seggern. Those who voted in the negative were Messrs. Burns, Hildebrand, Marshall, McConica, McMaken, Parker, Van Cleaf.

Mr. Spencer says by the vote that he had a narrow margin if the bill was placed on its passage. Although he demanded the previous question, it was in his opinion a wise movement to have the same postponed, so on his motion the bill was postponed until next Wednesday, when it is said all the street railway lobbyists, including Foraker, will be here to push its passage.

General Appropriation Bill.

The general appropriation bill was reported back in the senate late yesterday afternoon and passed. The senate committee made a reduction of nearly $80,000, but it was not allowed to remain at that reduction, as nearly $20,000 was added.

The amount appropriated in round numbers amounts to $2,360,000.

The request made from Toledo asylum was granted except in the case of ordinary repairs, and there was a cut of $2,000 made in that item. Following is the amount appropriated by items:

Current expenses	$105,000
Salaries of officers	4,300
Ordinary repairs	6,000
Trustees' expenses and salary of secretary	600
Furniture, carpets and bedding	1,000
Books, pictures and surgical instruments	200
Trees, grading and shrubbery	400
Roads and walks	500
Painting	1,500
Additional wells, pumps, tanks and connections	2,000

Overworked Railroad Employes.

The house yesterday afternoon passed Mr. Winn's bill preventing railroad accidents by compelling employes to work overtime. It provides a penalty of from $500 to $1,000 for the first offense and $1,500 for the second offense for companies to work their trainmen or other employes more than 15 hours without a rest of eight hours, except in urgent cases.

Bills Passed House.

Mr. Williams, of Williams—Repealing an act to vacate and to re-establish a state road through the farm of William Brewer, near Montpelier, Williams county.

Mr. Griffin—Providing for the reduction of freight tariff throughout the state from 5 to 4 cents per ton per mile.

Mr. Davis—Permitting the use of alarm bells and other electrical devices at railroad crossings.

Mr. Harshbarger—Providing for the improvement of gutters as well as sidewalks.

Mr. Molter—Authorizing the payment of $52 to Joseph Horks of Erie county, who enlisted in 1861 and discharged because he could not say "halt."

Mr. Southard—Requiring the secretary of state to furnish county clerks with copies of all general laws free of cost.

Mr. Clark—Requiring notice of contests of will and proceedings to begin within two years from date of admission to probate.

Mr. Sterrett—Appropriating $400 to pay damages caused to farmers by carelessness of a lock tender on the Miami & Erie canal.

Mr. Taylor, of Jefferson—Authorizing cities of the third grade, second class, to increase the general tax levy from 8 to 10 mills.

The Toledo Bond Bill.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the general assembly of the state of Ohio that section 2491 of the revised statutes of the state of Ohio, as supplemented, be supplemented by enacting section 2491c and 2491d, as follows, to-wit:

Sec. 2491c. That the board of natural gas trustees of any municipal corporation, which has been or shall hereafter be authorized to construct a natural gas plant or to borrow money and issue bonds therefor, for the purpose of procuring territory and right of way, sinking wells for natural gas, purchasing wells and natural gas works, purchasing and laying pipes, and supplying such municipal corporations with natural gas for public and private use and consumption, shall be and is hereby authorized to construct, extend and complete such natural gas plant, and is hereby authorized to apply such additional funds in payment therefor as may hereafter be provided from time to time, for such purpose, and may also expend all or such portion of the income received from the sale of natural gas (after paying current expenses and providing for the payment of interest falling due Oct. 1, 1892, upon all bonds issued for natural gas purposes) for the purpose aforesaid, as may in the opinion of said board be necessary to make the same efficient for the purposes intended.

Sec. 2491d. In all municipal corporations which heretofore, by their board of natural gas trustees, have constructed or caused to be constructed within the limits of such corporation, a natural gas plant, or any portion thereof, and have accepted and approved the labor performed and the materials furnished in such construction at a price or prices agreed upon between such board and the person or persons furnishing such labor and materials, and the claim or claims therefor have neither been paid nor any funds provided for the payment thereof, and such corporation or corporations still remain in the use and enjoyment of the labor and materials so furnished, such contracts and agreements so made shall be deemed and held as valid and binding contracts, although such municipal corporations or boards contracting in behalf thereof, exceeded the power and authority heretofore granted to such municipal corporations or boards and may not have complied with the laws then in force, and the common council of any municipal corporation is hereby authorized to provide for the payment of such claim or claims, by issuing bonds, in the manner prescribed by law, but such bonds shall bear a rate of interest not in excess of four and one-half per cent. (4 1-2) per annum, payable semi-annually; and any ordinance heretofore passed by the common council of any such municipal corporation, providing for the issue and sale of bonds for the payment of any such indebtedness or any part thereof, is hereby ratified and confirmed.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Posting the Books.

This is the sixty-second legislative day of the session and there have been introduced in the house 821 bills and 526 have been passed. Eight have been defeated. The senate has passed 282 house bills and defeated 8, leaving 236 pending.

There have been introduced in the senate 278 bills. One hundred and thirty-one have been passed and five have been defeated. Of the 131 passed the house has passed 83 and defeated 4, leaving 50 pending.

Notes.

Representative Doty, yesterday afternoon, offered for adoption a house joint resolution relating to the adjournment of the legislature April 18 at 4 p. m. It went over under the rule. This is the date fixed by Speaker Laylin.

The rules of the senate and house are broken every day as the session draws to a close, by the lobbyists forcing themselves to the front on both floors. Legislation should be watched carefully every day until the gavel falls declaring adjournment.

Senate passed Workman's bill amending section 4017 so as to prohibit boards of education in all counties, except Darke county, from electing school superintendents for a longer period than members of such boards are to serve.

Davis' bill amending section 4654 so as to authorize county commissioners to ascertain and establish all public highways and fix their boundaries, passed the senate yesterday afternoon.

The senate has confirmed B. H. Milliken, of Fayette, as trustee of the Girls Industrial home.

Mr. McClure's bill authorizing Union township, Putnam county, to levy four mills for road purposes, has passed the senate.

The senate has passed McConica's bill giving persons who equip or repair gas wells a lien thereon for their services, and supplies.

The house has passed Mr. Winn's bill providing that the pupils of deaf and dumb asylums, who, if sent home, would become inmates of the infirmaries, shall be kept at the asylum during the vacation. The bill requires the teaching of dressmaking at said institution.

Columbus real estate speculators secured the introduction of a bill in the senate today, making it legal to extend Neil avenue through the university grounds.

Wheat Quotations for the Day—Price Currents for Produce and Other Articles.

The receipts of wheat to-day are decreased. Minneapolis and Duluth furnish 281,694 bu. and the other five points 175,286 bu. The export clearances yesterday at four Atlantic ports were, wheat, 413,838 bu. and flour to an aggregate of 700,000 bu. Export of corn, 394,926 bu. and of oats, 70,489 bu.

London and Liverpool markets as reported herein are lower for wheat and corn.

The Kansas Farmer reports 30 counties in that state with an average prospect of a little more than half a crop, but these are not of the great wheat growing counties. The acreage in these counties is also largely decreased. Twenty-nine central counties show an average of 75 per cent. Forty-three western counties show an increased prospect over last year. General average, 85 per cent.

Chicago Switching Charges.

The Chicago "Bulletin" prints an agreement of the Central Traffic association and trunk lines, by which, in the competition for business, the lines are permitted to pay switching charges up to the amount of $3 per car, on the surrender of the paid bills by the forwarder or consignee. We call attention of our shippers and railway agents to this fact, as it is one of the important items in competition. It is a discrimination against Toledo.

Smut in Wheat.

A Michigan gentleman of wide experience inform us that white wheat grown in that state is nearly exempt from smut. This is a very important statement, and if verified by the facts should command attention. We believe smut in wheat is one of its diseases, and that in many instances depreciation in quality is traceable to resowing the seed on the same land from the previous crop. We believe farmers would find their interest in obtaining seed from some other winter wheat state.

Exports South.

Our country is wide enough and is expanding in production and resources, and no northern man, except a narrow one, opposes the export movement south. But a new channel of trade is not made perfect in a day. It requires years to perfect large facilities for outward bound and inward bound commerce. Kansas and Missouri have been exporting freely by rail and river to the gulf. Now there is a blockade at New Orleans. We advise dealers not to send corn that way that will meet detention at New Orleans. The result will be large damage.

Gold Exports.

Seven hundred and twenty thousand dollars in gold have been exported to-day.

The Exports To-Day.

Fifty-six years ago the average Indian learned, to his sorrow, to say, "White man very uncertain." We have learned recently that wheat is also very uncertain. Wheat has no conscience. It has no faith or love for its friends. It is quite easy for it to turn and rend its best friends. Opening reports of English markets looked more ragged than at any date, and American markets started lower. But it was soon developed that there was but little wheat for sale. That a good deal of cash wheat had been secured, and regardless of Liverpool the markets advanced about 1c, and has ruled about that during the forenoon.

What adds emphasis to our reiterated statement that as America goes so goes the world, our advance to-day under the circumstances, started Liverpool on the upward track.

But "be not deceived." The great short sale plungers have evened up, and they are aiding an advance to sell on. It is not safe to sell the market down at present price and they are willing it should advance. These enemies of wheat—if not public enemies—are very likely to attack it again. They can slip their halter about as easy as any men we know. They won't stand hitched.

In New York May wheat closed 1 1-8c and July 1 1-4c higher; May corn 1 1-4c and July 3-8c up; May oats 1-4c up.

In Chicago May wheat closed 1 1-4c higher, July 1 1-8c; May corn 1-2c, July 3-8c up; May oats 3-8c up.

In Toledo there has been some improvement in business to-day, and an advance in prices gives dealers more courage and hopefulness. Wheat futures were in good request without much pressure to sell, and our market has scored a sharp advance. Opening sales for May were at 86 3-8; July, 82 1-8; August, 82. Closing, May, 88 3-4; July, 83 1-2; August, 82 3-4. The advance on May was 2c; July 1c; August a loss of 1-8c.

Cash Wheat was in fair demand and generally held above May. Some sales of No. 2 soft 87 3-4c to 88 1-4c, and at close 89c was asked. After change it was sold at 86 1-2c and May at the same price. Corn—No. 2 at 40c; No. 3 at 39c to 39 1-2c; No. 4 at 37c. Rye—No. 2 at 80c. Clover seed was firm at the close and $6 50 was bid for prime, after sales at $6 40; No. 2 at $6 00.

TO INVESTIGATE COMPLAINT

The Bogus Census to be Aired in Congress.

The Methods Used to be Looked Into.

Progress Reported on the Bering Sea Complications—General News from Washington.

Washington, April 1.—The house committee on rules to-day ordered a favorable report on the resolution introduced by Mr. Anderson, of West Virginia, providing for an investigation of the census office, its practices, methods and the correctness of the data furnished by it.

Bering Sea Affairs.

Washington, April 1.—It is learned this morning that the communication cabled last night to Lord Salisbury, and which was reported to be President Harrison's response to his lordship's note of March 26, was Sir Julian Pauncefote's report of the progress of negotiations for a renewal of the modus vivendi, now under way in this city.

Inasmuch as the matter is being arranged in Washington, there is, of course, more or less correspondence by cable between Sir Julian Pauncefote and the home office, but there has been no formal response to Lord Salisbury's latest note, and the probabilities are that there will be none. An impression prevails that a satisfactory agreement respecting the modus vivendi is rapidly approaching completion.

To Square Himself.

Washington, April 1.—Mr. Owen, superintendent of immigration, appeared before the joint committee on immigration to-day and submitted a statement in reply to one made by Assistant Secretary Nettleton on the 29th inst., relative to his official conduct.

BISMARCK GROWING OLD.

Celebrating His Seventy-Seventh Birthday.

He Has Recovered from His Recent Illness and is Taking Part in the Festivities of the Occasion.

Hamburg, April 1.—Prince Bismarck is 77 years of age to-day, and in this city, as throughout Germany, the anniversary is being celebrated with enthusiasm. Bismarck is at Friedrichsruhe with the princess, his wife, his son, Count Herbert, and the countess.

The prince has recovered from his recent attack of illness and is able to enter with interest into the events of the day. Early in the day the reveille was sounded under the window of the prince's apartment by the Ratzeburg Jaegers.

Every train has brought lage numbers of delegations, including several Hamburg guilds, and representatives of organizations in all parts of the empire. The tenants of the estate have testified their loyalty by birthday gifts, more acceptable to the prince for the sentiment than their value, and messengers are kept busy delivering telegrams.

A NEAT SWINDLE,

For Which the Postal Telegraph Company May Pay

A Philadelphian Gets $500 from Rosenberg & Littig, of This City, But They Won't Stand the Loss.

Last week C. Sittig, of the firm of Rosenberg & Sittig, knitting company, of this city, was in Philadelphia. One day Mr. M. Rosenberg received a dispatch purporting to be from Sittig asking him to wire $500 at once. Mr. Rosenberg suspected something was wrong, but sent the money. He at the same time notified the Postal Telegraph company that the money was to be delivered only when the receiver had been properly identified. The company, however, failed to do this, or rather it depended on a check for the amount, in order to cash which the bearer would have to be identified.

Later developments showed that the bearer had in some way been identified and received the money.

Mr. Rosenberg, feeling uneasy, wired his partner if he had received the money. Mr. Sittig promptly replied that he knew nothing of any money, and then the truth came out.

Mr. Rosenberg at once applied to the Postal company for the money, inasmuch as it had been given out without orders.

To-day the firm received a check for the amount claimed and the Postal is evidently out. This is the newest swindling scheme out.

CLUBBED HIM TO DEATH.

A Moonshine Witness Brutally Murdered.

He Knew Too Much About the Crooked Whisky Cases and Paid for It With His Life.

Somerset, Pa., April 1.—While James Beal, a young man, was walking over the Laurel Hill mountains Wednesday, and had reached a lonely point, he was startled by a loud cry of halt.

Peering through the bushes he saw an old man and a few yards beyond were two other men with guns leveled at the old man. The command to halt was followed by the report of a gun and the old man dropped to his knees.

The two men then rushed upon their victim, clubbed him over the head with the butt end of their guns, and then dragged his body away into the woods. Beal fled, and going to the village of Trent, told his story, and a posse was formed to capture the highwaymen.

Jonathan Hershstetter, an old man who answers the description given by Beal, is missing. Hershstetter was the government's strongest witness in the moonshine cases tried in the United States district court at Scranton two weeks ago, when three members of the Somerset, Fayette county, band of illicit distillers were convicted and sentenced to the Fayette county jail for six months.

At the time the United States officers made the raid on the gang they only succeeded in capturing four of its members. The leader of the moonshiners escaped arrest and the gang threatened to take Hershstetter's life, and it is believed they have done so.

Later.—The body of Hershstetter was found last evening in Laurel Hill creek.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude, despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficacy.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., I hardly ever see anything else, and have never been disappointed in the effect produced; it seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.
W. J. McELROY, Macon, Ga.

DON'T DELAY TO

Stop that cough! Else the bronchial tubes will be enlarged and the delicate tissues of the lungs exposed to injury. No other medicine is so speedily operative in throat and lung troubles as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few doses have been known to break up an obstinate and distressing cough. Sufferers from asthma, bronchitis, croup, consumption, sore throat, and whooping cough find a sure relief in the use of this preparation. It Try soothes the inflamed membrane, promotes expectoration, and induces repose. Don't be without it in the house. Sallie E. Stone, Hurt's store, Va., writes: "I have found, in my family, that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral was always a certain cure for colds and coughs."

"Five years ago I had a constant cough, night sweats, was greatly reduced in flesh, and had been given up by my physicians. I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and was completely cured."—Anga A. Lewis, Ricard, N. Y.

PROCLAMATION.

Mayor's Office, Toledo, Ohio.

Whereas, it is declared unlawful by the laws of the state of Ohio for any person to sell or give away any spiritous, vinous or malt liquors, on any election day, and also is declared unlawful for any person being the keeper of a place where any such liquors are habitually sold and drunk, to fail to keep the same closed on any election day held under or by virtue of the constitution and laws of said state under penalty of fine and imprisonment; and

Whereas, Monday, the 4th day of April, A. D. 1892, is such election day as aforesaid. Now, therefore, I, V. J. Emmick, Mayor of the City of Toledo, as required by law, do hereby give notice to all concerned of the enactment and provisions of said laws, and that all violations of the same will subject the offender to punishment.

Given under my hand and seal of office this 31st day of March, A. D., 1892.

V. J. EMMICK,

During ex-Gov. Campbell's administration our republican friends indulged in a great deal of harsh comment because the Toledo asylum was reorganized. At that time they professed to believe that politics should not enter into the selection of officials at that institution. But in much less time than Campbell made the change, it has again been ripped up and all democratic heads will go into the bucket.—Defiance Democrat.

It has been conjectured that the secret of antediluvian longevity was some method of keeping the blood pure, warm and vigorous. Moderns accomplish the same purpose by using Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best blood medicine ever brought to light.

A WISE MAN HAS SAID

"There Is Nothing New Under the Sun."

And while this may be true, we think if the "wise man" had an opportunity of looking through our Linen stock just now he would admit that there are many beautiful new things among them.

Mr. Drummond having just returned from making the most extensive purchases he has ever made for the Lion Store is now prepared to show the choicest lines of Linens and White Goods that the most critical searchers could hope to find.

Complete assortments of New Linens and White Goods, including all the celebrated makes of India Lawns, Mulls, Dimity, English and French Nainsooks, Masalias, Marsailles, English Piques and Welts, Printed Swiss Mulls, Printed Dimities, Hemstitched Lawns and many choice novelties.

Many thousand dollars worth of the most celebrated makes of Table Linens, Napkins, Towels and Crashes. The most competent judges, the most critical buyers will be pleased with goods and prices.

All are Invited to Visit the Department.
